Case No.: 18-821-II

FILED

DAVIDSON CO. CHANCERY CT.
DC&M

VERIFIED COMPLAINT FOR INJUNCTIVE AND DECLARATORY RELIEF

For its Complaint, verified by sworn affidavit attached hereto as Exhibit #1, the Plaintiff respectfully states as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is a non-partisan, non-profit group of concerned citizens who care about protecting Tennessee’s democratic process. Its mission is to ensure that Tennessee’s election laws protect the rights of all Tennesseans to participate in democracy and support candidates of their choosing without unreasonable governmental interference.

2. To achieve these ends, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws engages in substantial advocacy efforts, including:

(1) Publishing op eds on state election law issues, see, e.g., Exhibit #2 (Commercial Appeal Op Ed on Instant Runoff Voting);

(2) Publishing essays on state election law issues, see, e.g., Exhibit #3 (essay on dangers of Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-19-142's criminalization of "false" campaign speech);

(3) Providing analysis of state election law issues for local media, see, e.g., Exhibit #4 (Nashville Post article on Metro Council District 1 expenditures);

(4) Contributing directly to, and making direct expenditures against, certain election-related measures, see, e.g., Exhibit #5 (contribution to SaveIRV Memphis regarding Shelby County's Instant Runoff Voting referendum); and

(5) Conducting candidate surveys gauging the positions held by diverse candidates running in competitive state and local races on state election law issues, see, e.g., Collective Exhibit #6 (Selected Candidate Questionnaires Completed by candidates Lee Harris, Gayle Jordan, and Joseph Williams); and

(6) Making direct contributions and expenditures in support of and in opposition to candidates and measures in furtherance of its mission.

3. Most relevant to this action, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws contributes directly to favored state and local candidates for public office and makes direct expenditures in opposition to candidates who are hostile to its agenda. See, e.g., Collective Exhibit #7 (2017 Campaign Finance Report; 2018 Q1 Amended Campaign Finance Report; 2018 Q2 Campaign Finance Report; and 2018 Pre-Primary Campaign Finance Report). Over the past year, for instance, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws has made well in excess of $3,000.00 in total direct contributions and expenditures to and against a diverse array of candidates and measures across Tennessee. See id.

4. One of the candidates whom Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws both supports and is most excited about supporting is constitutional lawyer Joseph Williams, who—unlike his primary opponent—returned a candidate questionnaire that indicated nearly complete support for Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws’ legislative agenda. See Collective Exhibit #6, pp. 5-6.

5. Accordingly, on June 22, 2018, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws formally endorsed Mr. Williams’ candidacy. See Collective Exhibit #8 (Letter of Endorsement, Campaign Contribution, and Public Endorsement). At the same time, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws also made a $300.00 contribution to Mr. Williams’ campaign. Id.

6. Mr. Williams is presently involved in a competitive primary election to fill the seat for Tennessee House District 56, which is being vacated by Speaker Beth Harwell. As of this filing, Mr. Williams is still actively soliciting campaign contributions in support of his candidacy during the critical 10-day period before election day on August 2, 2018. See Exhibit #9 (Affidavit of Joseph Williams).

7. Given Mr. Williams’ strong support for Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws’ mission and legislative agenda, see Exhibit #6, pp. 5-6; see also Exhibit #9; given that his race has remained competitive; and to help ensure that Mr. Williams is able to remain as competitive as possible through election day, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws wishes to increase its support to Mr. Williams by making an immediate $500.00 contribution to Mr. Williams’ campaign.

8. Because Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is a non-partisan multicandidate political campaign committee that is not “controlled by a political party,” however—and for this reason alone—making such a contribution within ten days of Mr. Williams’ election would be illegal. See Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 (“No multicandidate political campaign committee other than a committee controlled by a political party on the national, state, or local level or by a caucus of such political party established by members of either house of the general assembly shall make a contribution to any candidate after the tenth day before an election until the day of the election.”).

9. If Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws makes its desired campaign contribution to Mr. Williams, then it will be subject to criminal prosecution carrying a sentence of up to thirty days in jail, and it will also face an additional civil penalty of up to $10,000.00. See Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-19-102 (“A person commits a Class C misdemeanor if such person knowingly does any act prohibited by this title”); Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-35-111(e)(3) (“The authorized terms of imprisonment and fines for misdemeanors are: . . . Class C misdemeanor, not greater than thirty (30) days or a fine not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00), or both, unless otherwise provided by statute.”); Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-110(a)(2) (“A Class 2 offense is punishable by a maximum civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars”).

10. The likelihood of being punished with a severe sanction for contributing to Mr. Williams’ candidacy during the critical 10-day period before election day is not abstract. To the contrary, the Registry of Election Finance has recently initiated such enforcement actions threatening massive fines for violators. See, e.g., Exhibit #10 (Stand for Children Show Cause Order), ¶ 13(b)-(c).

11. Given the extraordinarily serious sanctions that Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws will face if it makes its desired campaign contribution to Mr. Williams, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws has filed the instant action seeking, inter alia:

(1) A preliminary injunction prohibiting Defendants from prosecuting Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws either criminally or civilly for contributing to Mr.

Williams' candidacy;

(2) A permanent injunction prohibiting the Defendants from enforcing Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117; and

(3) A declaratory judgment declaring Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 to be unconstitutional.

12. Several independent bases compel this relief. Specifically, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 is comically unconstitutional for multiple reasons.

13. First, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 contains an explicit speaker preference permitting only “a committee controlled by a political party on the national, state, or local level or by a caucus of such political party established by members of either house of the general assembly [to] make a contribution” during the critical 10-day period before an election. Id. By contrast, non-party PACs like Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws are prohibited from speaking. Id. As such, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 expressly discriminates against speakers based on their identity and political affiliation. Speech restrictions distinguishing among different speakers—allowing speech by some but not others—plainly violate the First Amendment.

14. Second, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 imposes a blanket ban on indispensable political speech during the most critical period before an election, imposing a severe burden on political speech that is not narrowly tailored to achieve any compelling governmental interest.

15. Third, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 contains a content-based restriction on just a single type of disfavored political speech and association—direct campaign contributions—while permitting all other forms of speech and association during the restricted time period at issue. Such content-based discrimination violates the First Amendment, and the First Amendment’s hostility to content-based regulations applies even when a regulation does not favor a particular side of a political controversy.

16. Because there is no compelling governmental interest to support any of these restrictions, and because Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 is not narrowly tailored to achieve any compelling governmental interest, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws submits that it should be permitted to contribute to Mr. Williams’ candidacy without fear of criminal or civil prosecution, and that this Court should declare Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 unconstitutional.

II. PARTIES

17. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is a registered Tennessee multicandidate political campaign committee (popularly known as a “PAC”). Its mission is to ensure that Tennessee’s election statutes, policies, and regulations protect the rights of all Tennesseans to participate in democracy and support candidates of their choosing without unreasonable governmental interference.

18. Defendant Tennessee Bureau of Ethics and Campaign Finance, Registry of Election Finance (“Registry”) is an independent agency of Tennessee’s state government. The Registry is responsible for the enforcement of Tennessee’s Campaign Financial Disclosure Act, codified at Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-101, et seq. The Registry’s responsibilities include assessing penalties for violations of Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117, which it actively investigates. See, e.g., Exhibit #10, ¶ 13(b)-(c). The Registry and its members—William (Paz) Haynes, Henry Fincher, Patricia Heim, Tom Lawless, and Tom Morton—are sued in their official capacities only.

19. Defendant Davidson County District Attorney General is the District Attorney General for Tennessee’s 20th Judicial District. His office is responsible for the prosecution of all violations of state criminal laws that occur within Tennessee's 20th Judicial District. Pursuant to the broad criminal prohibition set forth in Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-19-102 ("A person commits a Class C misdemeanor if such person knowingly does any act prohibited by this title"), the Davidson County District Attorney General's responsibilities include prosecuting violations of Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117. Defendant Davidson County District Attorney General is sued in his official capacity only.

III. JURISDICTION, AUTHORITY, AND VENUE

20. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 1-3-121; Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-14-102; and 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

21. This Court is vested with the authority to issue a declaratory judgment and an injunction with the force and effect of a final judgment pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-14-102, Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-1-106, Tenn. Code Ann. § 1-3-121, and 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

22. As the jurisdiction where the Defendants reside and where the Plaintiff's desired campaign contribution would be received, venue is proper in this Court pursuant Tenn. Code Ann. § 20-4-101(a).

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

23. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is a multicandidate political campaign committee (popularly known as a "PAC") that is registered as such with the Defendant Tennessee Bureau of Campaign Finance, Registry of Election Finance. A copy of the Plaintiff's multicandidate campaign committee registration (Appointment of Political Treasurer) form is attached hereto as Exhibit #11.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Under Tennessee law, "a group or organization becomes a multicandidate political campaign committee when it appoints or certifies a political treasurer to the Registry pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-105(e)." Tenn. Op. Att'y Gen. No. 03-112 (Sept. 9, 2003).

24. In 2018, as in the previous year, the Defendant Registry assessed Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws the $100.00 fee that applies exclusively to non-partisan multicandidate PACs. See Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121 (“No later than January 31 of each year, each multicandidate political campaign committee registered with the registry of election finance shall pay a registration fee. . . . This section shall not apply to any statewide political party as defined in § 2-1-104 or subsidiaries of the political party.”).

25. In 2018, as in 2017, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws timely paid the $100.00 fee that applies exclusively to non-partisan multicandidate PACs. See Collective Exhibit #12 (Non-Partisan PAC Fee Assessment).

26. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is a committee that has received contributions to support two (2) or more candidates for public office during a calendar year in an aggregate amount exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00). Accordingly, it qualifies as a multicandidate political campaign committee under Tennessee law that is subject to Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117’s speech penalty, see Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(12)(B), Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(9), and it is taxed with the $100.00 fee that applies exclusively to non-partisan multicandidate PACs under Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121.

27. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is a committee that has received contributions to oppose two (2) or more candidates for public office during a calendar year in an aggregate amount exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00). Accordingly, it qualifies as a multicandidate political campaign committee under Tennessee law that is subject to Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117’s speech penalty, see Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(12)(B), Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(9), and it is taxed with the $100.00 fee that applies exclusively to non-partisan multicandidate PACs under Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-

28. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is a committee that makes expenditures to support or oppose two (2) or more candidates for public office during a calendar year in an aggregate amount exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00). Accordingly, it qualifies as a multicandidate political campaign committee under Tennessee law that is subject to Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117's speech penalty, see Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(12)(B), Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(9), and it is taxed with the $100.00 fee that applies exclusively to non-party multicandidate PACs under Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121.

29. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is a committee that makes expenditures to support or oppose two (2) or more measures during a calendar year in an aggregate amount exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00). Accordingly, it qualifies as a multicandidate political campaign committee under Tennessee law that is subject to Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117's speech penalty, see Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(12)(A), Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(9), and it is taxed with the $100.00 fee that applies exclusively to non-partisan multicandidate PACs under Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121.

30. As a result, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws qualifies as a multicandidate political campaign committee under multiple independent definitions and every permutation available under Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(9), Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(12)(A), and Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(12)(B)<sup>2</sup>—as well as every definition

<sup>2</sup> Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(9) provides that: “Multicandidate political campaign committee’ means a political campaign committee to support or oppose two (2) or more candidates for public office or two (2) or more measures.”

Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-102(9) provides that:

“Political campaign committee” means:

previously advanced by the State either formally in writing<sup>3</sup> or during litigation.<sup>4</sup>

31. On Thursday, August 2, 2018, the State of Tennessee will hold primary elections for every seat in the Tennessee House of Representatives.

32. The Tennessee House District 56 seat, which is being vacated by Speaker of the House Beth Harwell, is no exception. The August 2, 2018 Republican Primary contest for the House District 56 seat features a competitive race between Brent Moody and Joseph Williams.

33. Given that the race for Tennessee House District 56 involves an open seat in a swing district, Tennessee House District 56 has received enormous and outsized attention and interest from both PACs and individuals. See, e.g., Cari Wade Gervin, Donations pour into race to replace Harwell, THE NASHVILLE POST (Feb. 2, 2018), <https://www.nashvillepost.com/politics/elections/campaign->

(A) Any corporation or any other organization making expenditures, except as provided in subdivision (4), to support or oppose a measure; or

(B) Any committee, club, corporation, association, or other group of persons which receives contributions or makes expenditures to support or oppose any candidate for public office or measure during a calendar year in an aggregate amount exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000);

<sup>3</sup> “[A] group or organization becomes a multicandidate political campaign committee when it appoints or certifies a political treasurer to the Registry pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-105(e).” Tenn. Op. Att’y Gen. No. 03-112 (Sept. 9, 2003).

<sup>4</sup> Although irrelevant now in light of Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws’ donation history, in recent litigation, the Tennessee Attorney General’s Office expressly repudiated its position in Tenn. Op. Att’y Gen. No. 03-112 (Sept. 9, 2003) that “a group or organization becomes a multicandidate political campaign committee when it appoints or certifies a political treasurer to the Registry pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-105(e).” Instead, the Attorney General claimed that a group does not become a multicandidate political campaign committee until after it makes contributions in excess of $1,000.00. However, the Attorney General appears to have failed to inform its client of its unannounced change in position, since the Registry continues to treat—and bill—new registrants as multicandidate political campaign committees both at the moment a treasurer is appointed and every January even if contributions have neither been made nor reported (and has done so consistently for years). See Exhibit #12. Indeed, the Registry’s registration form states that “no funds may be received or expended” at all until a PAC has registered as a multicandidate political campaign committee, see Exhibit #11, which is also the only way for anyone to know what contribution restrictions apply.

finance/article/20991131/donations-pour-into-race-to-replace-harwell.

34. Joseph Williams, one of the candidates for House District 56, is a constitutional lawyer who understands the importance of protecting political speech. On February 23, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws sent him a candidate questionnaire seeking to ascertain his views on a variety of election-related issues important to the Plaintiff's mission, including: (1) public financing of campaigns; (2) felon disenfranchisement; (3) political gerrymandering; (4) automatic voter registration; and (5) contribution limits for local candidates. See Collective Exhibit #6, pp. 5-6. On March 1, 2018, Mr. Williams completed and returned Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws' candidate questionnaire and expressed full and enthusiastic support for nearly all of its legislative agenda. See id.

35. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws furnished the same candidate questionnaire to Tennessee House District 56 candidate Brent Moody, Mr. Williams' Republican Primary opponent. See Exhibit #13 (Request for Completion of Candidate Questionnaire). Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws waited several months for Dr. Moody to complete its candidate survey. However, Dr. Moody declined to do so.

36. As a result, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws had little difficulty deciding which candidate to endorse in the Tennessee House District 56 Republican Primary. On June 22, 2018, the Plaintiff formally endorsed Mr. Williams' candidacy. See Exhibit #8. In conjunction with its endorsement, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws made a $300.00 contribution to Mr. Williams' campaign. Id.

37. Early voting is presently underway for the August 2, 2018 Republican Primary election for House District 56, which remains competitive. See Exhibit #9. Accordingly, Mr. Williams is still actively soliciting campaign contributions and making ad buys and other expenditures in a final push to get out the vote before election day.

38. The more campaign contributions Mr. Williams receives, the more effective he will be at getting his message to voters. See id. Accordingly, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws would like to make another contribution to support Mr. Williams's campaign. Strictly because Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is a non-partisan, multicandidate PAC, however, it is subject to Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117's political speech penalty, and it is prohibited by law from doing so.

39. If Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws were permitted to contribute to Mr. Williams' campaign, Mr. Williams would accept the contribution. See Exhibit #9. To be useful, however, the contribution needs to be made before election day. A contribution after the conclusion of Mr. Williams' election would be purposeless.

40. Traditionally, Tennessee law permits PACs like Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws to contribute up to $7,800.00 to support a candidate's campaign. See Exhibit #14 (BECF 2017/18 Contribution Limit Changes).

41. Within ten days of an election, however, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 forbids non-partisan multicandidate PACs like Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws from making any direct campaign contribution at all. See id. ("No multicandidate political campaign committee other than a committee controlled by a political party on the national, state, or local level or by a caucus of such political party established by members of either house of the general assembly shall make a contribution to any candidate after the tenth day before an election until the day of the election.").

42. If Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws were "a committee controlled by a political party on the national, state, or local level or by a caucus of such political party established by members of either house of the general assembly," however, see id., then it would be exempt from Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117's prohibition on making campaign contributions within ten days of an election.

43. Because Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is a non-partisan PAC and is not controlled by a political party, however—and for this reason alone—it is legally prohibited from making its desired campaign contribution, and it could face both criminal and civil sanction for doing so. See Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-19-102 (“A person commits a Class C misdemeanor if such person knowingly does any act prohibited by this title”); Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-35-111(e)(3) (“The authorized terms of imprisonment and fines for misdemeanors are: . . . Class C misdemeanor, not greater than thirty (30) days or a fine not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00), or both, unless otherwise provided by statute.”); Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-110(a)(2) (“A Class 2 offense is punishable by a maximum civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars”).

44. The risk of enforcement and being punished with severe penalties for violating Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 is not abstract. Defendant Tennessee Bureau of Ethics and Campaign Finance, Registry of Election Finance actively prosecutes violations of Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117. For example, in a recent election cycle, the Registry issued a non-partisan PAC an Order to Show Cause setting forth alleged violations of Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117, which warned that: “A violation of T.C.A. § 2-10-117 is punishable as a Class 2 offense, which would subject Stand PAC and/or Stand Independent to a maximum civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).” See Exhibit #10, ¶ 13(b)-(c).

45. To facilitate its enforcement of Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117, when a prospective PAC seeks to register with the State, the Defendant Registry requires the PAC to certify whether it is “controlled by a political party on the national, state, of [sic] local level or by a caucus of a political party established by the members of either house of the general assembly.” See Exhibit #11 (Registration Form).

46. To facilitate its enforcement of Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117, the Defendant Registry also assesses and collects a $100.00 annual fee from non-party PACs like Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws—but not from party PACs or individual contributors. See Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121 (“No later than January 31 of each year, each multicandidate political campaign committee registered with the registry of election finance shall pay a registration fee to be determined by rule promulgated pursuant to § 4-55-103(1). . . . This section shall not apply to any statewide political party as defined in § 2-1-104 or subsidiaries of the political party.”) (emphasis added).

47. The Defendant Registry also provides formal guidance that compliance with Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 is strictly required. For example, the Registry’s packet of “Frequently Asked Questions” includes a subsection on “Blackout Periods” that states: “During the nine (9) [sic] day period prior to any election day, a PAC is prohibited from making a campaign contribution to a candidate for state or local public office, unless the committee is a political party PAC.” See Exhibit #15 (Registry FAQ), p. 8, Item #16.

48. The Attorney General of the State of Tennessee has provided the same guidance. See Tenn. Op. Att’y Gen. No. 03-112 (Sept. 9, 2003) (“Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 prohibits a multicandidate political campaign committee, other than a committee controlled by a political party on the national, state or local level or by a caucus of such political party, from making a contribution to any candidate for the ten day period prior to an election.”).

49. Over the past year, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws has attempted to comply with Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 in good faith.

50. On several occasions, however, complying with Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 has required Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws to make campaign contributions prematurely and before it was advantageous to do so.

51. For example, to avoid non-compliance with Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117, on May 13, 2018, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws made a $250.00 contribution to State Representative Gerald McCormick, who was then a candidate for both Tennessee House District 26 and Speaker of the Tennessee House. See Exhibit #16 (McCormick Contribution). Representative McCormick cashed the contribution on May 29, 2018, which had been made earlier than the Plaintiff would have preferred. See id. Three weeks later, Representative McCormick withdrew his candidacy and announced that he would not be seeking reelection for public office, rendering Plaintiff's contribution a waste. See Andy Sher, State Rep. Gerald McCormick, former state House majority leader, resigning Oct. 1, THE TENNESSEAN (Jun. 18, 2018), <https://www.tennessean.com/story/news/politics/2018/06/18/state-rep-gerald-mccormick-former-state-house-majority-leader-resigning-oct-1/710060002/>. It was not the first time that a candidate that Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws supported dropped out unexpectedly and shortly before an election.<sup>5</sup>

52. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws' good-faith effort to comply with Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 has also operated to prevent Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws from making desired campaign contributions.

53. For example, in May of this year, the Plaintiff's contribution to Nashville

<sup>5</sup> The Plaintiff's preferred candidate also withdrew from the November 7, 2017 Senate District 17 Republican primary race shortly before the special election to fill that seat took place. See Jared Felkins, Wilson opts out of special state Senate race, LEBANON DEMOCRAT (Sep. 30, 2017), <https://lebanondemocrat.com/Politics/2017/09/29/Wilson-opts-out-of-special-state-Senate-race>.

Mayor (then acting-Mayor) David Briley was returned because Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws could not get Mayor Briley's campaign the contribution quickly enough. See Exhibit #17 (Briley Returned Contribution).

54. Specifically, on April 10, 2018—following successful litigation brought by a mayoral candidate represented by Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws' counsel—the Tennessee Supreme Court ordered the Metropolitan Government to reset the election to fill the vacancy in the office of Nashville's Mayor to a date that was legally permissible under the Metropolitan Charter. See generally Wallace v. Metro. Gov't of Nashville, 546 S.W.3d 47 (Tenn. 2018). The election was ultimately held on May 24, 2018.

55. After scrambling to evaluate the candidates for Mayor during a significantly condensed vetting period, and in an effort to avoid non-compliance with Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117's 10-day blackout period before the May 24, 2018 election, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws mailed a campaign contribution to Mayor Briley's campaign on May 13, 2018. See Exhibit #17. The contribution did not reach his campaign in time, however, so Plaintiff's check was returned uncashed—thereby prohibiting Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws from contributing to and associating with a candidate it supported. See id.

56. On several occasions, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws' good-faith efforts to comply with Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 have also foreclosed Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws from being able even to consider contributing to candidates after taking the time necessary to vet them.

57. For instance, Mayor Briley's aforementioned election created a vacancy in the office of Vice Mayor on May 24, 2018 that is to be filled on August 2, 2018. The qualifying deadline for the seat was June 8, 2018. However, the field of candidates was not set until after the withdrawal deadline on June 15, 2018. Accordingly, in order to be able to make a meaningful contribution to a candidate for Vice Mayor, non-partisan PACs like Tennesseans for Sensible Election Law would have had to vet the candidates' positions and make a contribution within a period of just thirty-eight (38) days—a significant and unduly burdensome demand that is not required of other speakers. Consequently, although the Vice Mayoral candidates are still continuing to make their cases to voters and seeking out contributions from those who are permitted to contribute to them during the ten days before their election, see, e.g., Exhibit #18 (Jim Shulman Campaign Literature), Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is prohibited by law from contributing to any Vice Mayoral candidate even though it would like to be able to do so.

58. Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 also harms Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws by forcing it to structure and minimize its contributions and expenditures throughout the year to avoid coming within the ambit of the law's significant political speech penalty. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws could purportedly avoid becoming subject to Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117's speech penalty by keeping its contributions to candidates under $1,000.00 each year and never making expenditures to support or oppose multiple measures.<sup>6</sup> This option, too, however, is unduly and unfairly burdensome—forcing Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws to reduce the size of its desired contributions and refrain from supporting more than one measure per year solely to avoid a significant political speech penalty to which other speakers are not subject.

59. The State of Tennessee has no constitutionally defensible interest in punishing disfavored political speakers like Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws with Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117's discriminatory political speech penalty.

60. Tennessee does not have any compelling state interest in discriminating against disfavored political speakers or determining who is permitted to speak during the most critical period before an election based on speakers' political affiliation.

61. During the ten days before an election, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 imposes a categorical and constitutionally unjustifiable ban on all campaign contributions to state or local candidates from non-party PACs.

62. Tennessee does not have a compelling state interest in imposing a blanket prohibition—or any prohibition other than a contribution limit—on direct campaign contributions during the critical ten-day period before an election.

63. Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 does not forbid Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws from engaging in other forms of political speech or association during the ten days before an election.

64. Instead, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws is solely prohibited from engaging in the single most popular and important form of core political speech and association during the ten days before an election: making a campaign contribution.

65. Tennessee does not have a compelling state interest in imposing content-based restrictions on political speech or association.

66. Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 is not narrowly tailored to achieve any compelling governmental interest.

67. Funding enforcement of Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 through discriminatory assessments against disfavored political speakers is equally unconstitutional. Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121 expressly discriminates based on political association, charging disfavored non-party political speakers a $100.00 annual fee while charging favored partisan speakers nothing.

68. The discriminatory and association-based classification drawn by Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121 does not further any compelling governmental interest.

69. The discriminatory, association-based classification drawn by Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121 is not narrowly tailored to achieve any compelling governmental interest.

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

1. Violation of the First and Fourteenth Amendments

(Speaker Discrimination)

70. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws reincorporates and realleges the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

71. Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 contains an explicit speaker preference for favored speakers (party-controlled PACs and individuals) and discriminates against disfavored speakers (non-party PACs).

72. By imposing speech-based and association-based restrictions on non-party PACs but exempting party-controlled PACs and individuals from the same restrictions, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 is unconstitutional both facially and as applied to Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws because it grants a waiver to favored speakers while discriminating against disfavored speakers based solely on their identity.

2. Violation of the First and Fourteenth Amendments

(Discrimination Based on Political Association)

73. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws reincorporates and realleges the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

74. By imposing restrictions on campaign contributions based on whether a PAC is a “committee controlled by a political party on the national, state, or local level or by a caucus of such political party,” Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 is unconstitutional both facially and as applied to Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws because it discriminates on the basis of a speaker’s political association. Id.

3. Violation of the First and Fourteenth Amendments

(Content Discrimination)

75. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws reincorporates and realleges the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

76. By categorically restricting direct campaign contributions during the most critical period before an election while permitting other forms of political speech and association, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 is unconstitutional both facially and as applied to Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws because it imposes unconstitutional content-based discrimination.

4. Violation of the First and Fourteenth Amendments

(Freedom of Speech)

77. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws reincorporates and realleges the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

78. By imposing a categorical “Blackout Ban” on political campaign contributions during the most crucial period before an election, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 is unconstitutional both facially and as applied to Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws because it is an overbroad speech restriction that criminalizes substantial protected speech and unconstitutionally proscribes core political speech that falls within a realm in which the importance of First Amendment protection is at its zenith.

5. Violation of the First and Fourteenth Amendments

(Discrimination Based on Political Association)

79. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws reincorporates and realleges the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

80. By assessing fees to non-party PACs but exempting both “any statewide political party as defined in § 2-1-104 or subsidiaries of the political party” and individual political speakers, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121 is unconstitutional both facially and as applied to Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws because it discriminates on the basis of a speaker’s political association.

6. Violation of Tenn. Const. art. I, § 19

81. Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws reincorporates and realleges the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

82. By discriminating against disfavored speakers, and by prohibiting a specified, disfavored form of political speech and association during the most critical period before an election, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 violates Tenn. Const. art. I, § 19.

83. By discriminating against disfavored speakers and assessing a fee against disfavored political speakers as a precondition to being permitted to make campaign contributions at all, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121 violates Tenn. Const. art. I, § 19.

VI. CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws respectfully prays:

1. That process issue and be served upon the Defendants, and that Defendants be required to appear and answer this Complaint within the time required by law.

2. That this Court issue a preliminary injunction enjoining Defendants from enforcing Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 against the Plaintiff in advance of the August 2, 2018 election and permitting the Plaintiff to make a $500.00 direct campaign contribution to Joseph Williams before August 2, 2018 without fear of either criminal or civil sanction.<sup>7</sup>

3. That this Court issue a permanent injunction enjoining the enforcement of both Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 and Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121.

4. That this Court issue a final judgment declaring that Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-117 and Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-121 are unconstitutional and violate the Plaintiff's rights under the First and Fourteenth Amendment and Tenn. Const. art. I, § 19 both facially and as applied.

5. That this Court grant the Plaintiff its reasonable costs and attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988(b).

6. That this Court grant the Plaintiff all other relief to which it is entitled.

Opinion | Don't let politics doom instant runoffs

Many Americans take elections for granted. We go to the polls, push a button, watch for the results. We move on with our lives without giving the process any more thought than we give the "I Voted" sticker that we throw away after Election Day.

But how the government conducts elections can have dire consequences.

In Memphis, where almost a third of the population lives in poverty -- including almost half of all children -- many people must make work-related sacrifices on Election Day just to cast a ballot.

If there is a runoff six weeks later -- and there usually is in Memphis -- those voters face that difficult choice again.

Instant run-off voting saves time, energy and money by eliminating second runoff elections, which tend to draw a fraction of voters.

With instant runoffs, voters cast one ballot on Election Day, generally ranking their top two or three preferences.

If no candidate receives a majority of first-place votes after the first count, election officials eliminate the last-place finisher and retabulate the ballot including voters' second-place votes.

The process continues until a one candidate emerges with a majority of first-, second- and third-place votes.

Eleven cities across the country use instant runoffs, and Maine adopted instant runoffs statewide in 2016.

It's how the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences selects Oscar nominees and winners. It's also how Heisman Trophy winners are selected.

Memphis voters thought so highly of the idea of instant runoffs that 71 percent of them approved its adoption in 2008. It would affect only district-level city council races.

Unfortunately, the Shelby County Election Commission had refused to implement IRV, claiming the county didn't have the proper equipment. But last summer, new Elections Administrator Linda Phillips announced plans to begin instant runoffs in the city's 2019 elections (/story/news/politics/elections/2017/12/12/election-commission-sue-memphis-tennessee-over-instant-runoffs/944897001/).

In September, state elections coordinator Mark Goins issued an opinion that instant runoffs are illegal.

In December, the Memphis City Council directed the Election Commission to add a city charter referendum to the November ballot asking voters whether they want to repeal instant runoffs.

Now, the Council has retained lobbyists in Nashville to push legislation (/story/news/government/city/2018/02/19/memphis-council-quietly-works-anti-instant-runoffs-bill/351732002/), that would prohibit "a county or municipality from using instant runoff voting for purposes of conducting a primary, general, or special election." A vote is scheduled March 13.

Those challenges fly in the face of democratically enacted reform.

Trying to undo instant runoffs before implementing them is a naked restraint on Memphians' meaningful participation in the democratic process as power-hungry politicians attempt to keep their seats in City Hall.

One of the ugly truths about democracy is that changing the rules of the game can change who wins. People who have power to set the rules often have a lot of self-interest in controlling outcomes.

Take gerrymandering, for example. The party that controls the drawing of district lines can control the state legislature and Congress.

The same principle applies to instant runoffs. If you can control who casts a ballot and when, you can manipulate the outcome by depressing voter turnout.

Memphians should oppose the Council's effort to repeal instant runoffs and all efforts to suppress voter turnout. And if that fails, we can always vote them out of office in 2019.

It Shouldn't Be a Crime to Make Fun of Your State Representative. In Tennessee, It Is.

If you decide that you've had enough of the nonsense in Nashville and you send postcards to potential voters claiming your representative "has cauliflower for brains"—or if you publish or distribute any other "campaign literature in opposition to any candidate in any election" that you know to be false—police can arrest you for committing a Class C misdemeanor (<https://law.justia.com/codes/tennessee/2010/title-2/chapter-19/part-1/2-19-142>), lock you in a cage for a month, and fine you for every postcard you send. Frighteningly, if Tennessee House Representative Karen Camper (D-Memphis) and Tennessee Senator Reginald Tate (D-Memphis) get their way (<http://wapp.capitol.tn.gov/apps/BillInfo/Default.aspx?BillNumber=HB1341>), the "crime" of distributing false campaign literature would be elevated to a Class A misdemeanor, allowing the state to lock you up for nearly a year.

What country is this, and what happened to America?

The often-misunderstood Citizens United v. FEC (<http://www.scotusblog.com/case-files/cases/citizens-united-v-federal-election-commission/>) case turns eight years old this year. In that case, the Supreme Court ruled that the First Amendment protects people from being thrown in jail for exercising their right to free speech. What better time is there to explore why the ideas behind Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-19-142 (<https://law.justia.com/codes/tennessee/2010/title-2/chapter-19/part-1/2-19-142>) are so bad?

It goes without saying that giving government officials the power to imprison people who criticize or make fun of them is a dangerous, slippery slope. With that context in mind, it is also worth noting that the Camper/Tate bill (<http://wapp.capitol.tn.gov/apps/BillInfo/Default.aspx?BillNumber=HB1341>) that the General Assembly is considering this legislative session helps nobody more than it helps Rep. Camper and Sen. Tate. If you can't write that your representative has cauliflower for brains, what can you write? You can write a bunch of boring technical, legal, or public policy jargon that most people don't understand. When people read those kinds of things, they either vote for people who already hold office—like Rep. Camper and Sen. Tate—or they get frustrated and don't vote at all. Either way, incumbents win.

In a case involving an Ohio state law that criminalized political speech the same way that Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-19-142 does, Cato Institute constitutional scholar Ilya Shapiro once argued (<https://www.politico.com/magazine/story/2014/03/supreme-court-lying-politicians-cato-amicus-105050>) to the Supreme Court that “‘truthiness’—a ‘truth’ asserted ‘from the gut’ or because it ‘feels right,’ without regard to evidence or logic—is . . . a key part of political discourse.” He also recognized that “the government [is not] well-suited for evaluating when a statement crosses the line into falsehood.” That’s doubly true for people who have both the power to make laws and a personal interest in the outcome of their next election. (And ultimately, Shapiro proved right: Ohio backed away from trying to enforce its unconstitutional law against a nonprofit that wanted to put up a billboard.)

Further, Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-19-142 ignores that saying nasty things about the other guy or gal is as American as apple pie. When Thomas Jefferson ran for president in 1800, he accused (<http://reason.com/blog/2010/10/29/attack-ads-circa-1800>) President John Adams of “trying to start a war with France,” “importing mistresses from Europe,” and committing that cardinal sin of “trying to marry one of his sons to a daughter of King George.” Adams, a known verbal pugilist (<http://mentalfloss.com/article/51899/7-john-adams-greatest-insults>), repaid Jefferson in kind, saying that if people elected the man who wrote the Declaration of Independence, their homes would spontaneously combust. (And thanks to Lin-Manuel Miranda, many people now know that Adams also called Alexander Hamilton a “Creole bastard” (<https://youtu.be/PouTf9gYZMw>)—but that was actually true (<http://www.history.com/news/5-things-you-didnt-know-about-alexander-hamilton>)!)

If politicians want to literally handcuff themselves from being able to joke about some of the more cartoonish candidates for Tennessee governor and U.S. Senate this year, I suppose they can be my guest—because that’s exactly what Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-19-142 does. Of course, Tennesseans who support sensible election laws shouldn’t let this happen. Vote against Rep. Camper and Sen. Tate in the next election. After all, they have cauliflower for brains.

ELECTIONS

⌚ JUN 26, 2018

District 1 runoff candidates raise thousands

One buys flight to Denver with campaign funds in race for Northwest Nashville seat

AUTHORS Stephen Elliott

District 1 is Nashville's largest Metro Council district, spanning more than 56,000 acres, yet canvassing in a campaign to represent the area in northwest Nashville is still unlikely to require air travel.

But one of two candidates in the special election runoff this week did just that, spending $360 in campaign funds on a Southwest flight in the period before the five-person general election late last month.

Jonathan Hall, who finished first in the May 24 general election and now faces Judy Cummings in the runoff, tells the Post he went to Denver to study that city's public transit system. (See his full campaign finance report from April 1 to May 14 here.)

"I was always against transit ... had the data and physically went to see Denver's system," he wrote in an email, adding that experts on both sides of the transit referendum debate "used comparable cities with the rail system but relied heavily on Denver to make their respective points."

A Tennessee Registry of Election Finance spokesperson directed the Post to a frequently asked questions page.

Daniel Horwitz, a campaign finance lawyer and election counsel for election reform advocacy group Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws, said that state law "strictly prohibits using campaign funds for a candidate's own personal use."

"As a result, if an expense would have been incurred regardless of that person's candidacy for public office, then it cannot be paid for using campaign funds," he continued. "However, applicable campaign finance regulations provide that whether an expenditure is made for a legitimate political purpose 'depends upon all the facts and circumstances surrounding the expenditure.' Consequently, in determining whether the expenses at issue were allowable, the Registry's question would be whether, after taking all of the facts and circumstances surrounding the expenditure into account, the expenses were genuinely incurred for the purpose of influencing the candidate's candidacy."

Hall also spent more than $200 at Firestone, which he said was for repairs after his and a campaign worker's vehicles had their tires cut while out canvassing. But his largest expenditure during the general election — more than $1,000 — was to himself, for supplies, phone bankers and poll workers.

Much of the more than $4,000 he raised before the general election came from people with existing or pending business in District 1. The largest donation — $1,500 — came from Jeff Hollingshead, CEO of concrete company Smyrna Ready Mix. The Nashville-based company operates a facility, at one time a barge terminal along the Cumberland River, in District 1 and in 2015 unsuccessfully sought to build a new concrete batch plant in the district.

"I don't know 90 percent of who donated right now," Hall told the Post. "Bottom line is I'm not for sale, and $1 million couldn't get me to give audience to a bad development or project and I've proven that already."

Hall's average itemized donation was more than $500. (He also reported unitemized donations of $450.) Three additional $500 donations came from Nashville real estate lawyer Tom White, developer Robert Pullen, who is building a 61-home townhome community in District 1, and Roy Dale, a developer and engineer and former Metro Council member. He also reported a $101 contribution from Nick Leonardo, who previously represented the district and for whose campaign Hall once worked.

Cummings' available campaign finance report shows that she raised more than $8,000 during a different, more recent six-week period than that included on Hall's report. Her donors included Nashville real estate investor Bert Mathews, several Meharry Medical College officials and Davidson County Clerk Brenda Wynn. Most of her spending was on print and radio advertisements.

Cummings did not respond to an email seeking comment.

TSEL Endorses Joseph Williams in Primary Election for Tennessee House District 56

Constitutional Lawyer, Educator, and Small Business Owner Will Safeguard the Rights of All Tennesseans to Participate in Democracy

NASHVILLE, TENN. – The Tennesseans for Sensible Election Laws PAC endorsed First Amendment lawyer, educator, and small business owner Joseph Williams today in his bid for Tennessee House District 56. The seat was vacated by former Tennessee House Speaker Beth Harwell, who is instead seeking the office of Governor of Tennessee this year.

“The quality, candor, and thoughtfulness of Mr. Williams’ responses to our Candidate Survey far surpassed any candidate whose views on election law and campaign finance we have sought,” said TSEL PAC Treasurer George Scoville. “There is nothing more sacrosanct in civil society than to be able to support and vote for the people who will have power to control so many aspects of our lives, and we are supremely confident that Mr. Williams has not only internalized this bedrock principle of our politics, but that he will work diligently to protect Tennesseans in our electoral process from unreasonable interference from the State of Tennessee.”

Mr. Williams, a Republican, faces Green Hills surgeon Dr. Brent Moody in a primary election on August 2. The winner will face Democrat Bob Freeman in the general election on November 6.

8. Stand Independent also reported campaign obligations to Stand for Children, Inc. of $8,763.47 incurred on July 1, 2016 and $8,725.00 on June 27, 2016 which were categorized as “Staffing Costs For Canvassing - Nashville SB”. These are not sorted out by candidate.

9. On June 23, 2016 Daniel O’Donnell (“O’Donnell”), Nashville City Director for Stand for Children, Inc., sent an e-mail to individuals and organizations involved in the charter school movement. The e-mail encouraged the recipients to recruit canvassers and make calls themselves on behalf of Christy, Druffel, Meneely, and Miller. One of the recipients was Marsha Edwards, President and CEO of the Martha O’Bryan Center. The Center had applied to the current school board to open a charter school and had been turned down.

10. On the same date O’Donnell sent a follow-on e-mail to Edwards:

“Hey Marsha – appreciate your efforts with the list, just haven’t heard from anyone. We have capacity to hire MANY canvassers, which would dramatically improve our trajectory . . . but few takers.”

11. On the same date Edwards sent the following e-mail (redacted for brevity) to her entire staff:

“Hello Everyone – I am passing on an urgent need for paid canvassers this Saturday and Sunday [June 25 – 26] and beyond. Below is [sic] the districts that are in play [referring to the O’Donnell’s original e-mail that identifies Christy, Druffel, Meneely, and Miller as their favored candidates] and the candidates that are paying for canvassing help. I believe that the pay is $10.00 per hour and you can contact Daniel at dodonnell@stand.org. for additional information. You can also just volunteer.”

* * * * *

“All of these candidates are endorsed by TN Stand for Children and are candidates that want to bring more collaboration and data-driven deliberation to the School Board. They are all friendly to charters as one strategy to improving results for children.”

“Also Jane Meneely (District 3) is working for us as an event consultant. She would be a strong school board member. I spent some time with Miranda Christy (District 5) this morning and feel that she would be another strong, smart, well-informed and thoughtful school board member.”

12. In these exchanges O’Donnell was acting as an agent for Stand Independent as that is the only entity having money earmarked for paid canvassers in the Nashville school board elections. The e-mails discussed above show that Stand Independent was making expenditures in cooperation with, or in concert with, or at the request or suggestion of a candidate, the candidate's political campaign committees, or their agents.

- a. T.C.A. § 2-10-305(c) provides that for the purpose of calculating compliance with statutory campaign contribution limits that such expenditures are considered a contribution to such candidate.
  - b. Stand PAC and Stand Independent are “affiliated political campaign committees” as that term is defined by T.C.A. § 2-10-102(1)(A). T.C.A. § 2-10-303(4) provides that with respect to determining compliance with statutory campaign contribution limits “all contributions made by affiliated political campaign committees shall be considered to have been made by a single committee.”
  - c. The affiliated committees made an aggregate contribution of at least $70,940.45 to Christy. The maximum contribution that affiliated committees can make to a candidate for local public office is $7,600. T.C.A. § 2-10-302(b)(2). T.C.A. § 2-10-307(a) prohibits a candidate from accepting a contribution in excess of the statutory maximum. The same section prohibits a political campaign committee from making an expenditure in excess of that amount. Christy and the affiliated committees are each subject to maximum Class 2 civil penalties of 115% of the contributions in excess of the statutory maximum, or at least $72,841.52. T.C.A. §2-10-308(a).
  - d. The affiliated committees made an aggregate contribution of at least $73,615.56 to Druffel. Based on the authorities cited above, Druffel and the affiliated committees are each subject to maximum Class 2 civil penalties of 115% of the contributions in excess of the statutory maximum, or at least $75,917.84.
  - e. The affiliated committees made an aggregate contribution of at least $73,646.27 to Meneely. Based on the authorities cited above, Meneely and the affiliated committees are each subject to maximum Class 2 civil penalties of 115% of the contributions in excess of the statutory maximum, or at least $75,953.21.
  - f. The affiliated committees made an aggregate contribution of at least $70,964.89 to Miller. Based on the authorities cited above, Miller and the affiliated committees are each subject to maximum Class 2 civil penalties of 115% of the contributions in excess of the statutory maximum, or at least $72,869.62.
13. On July 26, 2016 O’Donnell met with Druffel. This was observed and filmed by a Nashville TV reporter who later interviewed O’Donnell. According to the reporter O’Donnell stated to her that the purpose of the meeting was “to detail for the last 10 days what we were going to do and nothing more than that.” Within four hours of the meeting voters in Druffel’s district began receiving phone calls advocating his election and responding to negative ads against him.
- a. “Contribution” is defined in T.C.A. § 2-10-102 as:

“ . . . any advance, conveyance, deposit, distribution, transfer of funds, loan, loan guaranty, personal funds of a candidate, payment, gift, or subscription of money or like thing of value, and any contract, agreement, promise or other obligation, whether or not legally enforceable, made for the purpose of influencing a measure or nomination for election or the election of any person for public office . . .”

- b. The meeting between O’Donnell, a paid employee of Stand for Children, Inc. and an agent for Stand PAC and Stand Independent, constituted a contribution by Stand PAC and/or Stand Independent made in violation of T.C.A. § 2-10-117, which prohibits multicandidate political campaign committees from making “contributions” in the 10 days preceding an election.
  - c. A violation of T.C.A. § 2-10-117 is punishable as a Class 2 offense, which would subject Stand PAC and/or Stand Independent to a maximum civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).
14. T.C.A. § 2-10-105(b) requires a candidate for local public office to report to the county election commission contributions received and expenditures made by the candidate. Christy, Druffel, Meneely, and Miller failed to report any contributions made to their campaigns by Stand Independent on their second quarter and pre-primary campaign financial disclosure reports. This failure subjects each to a Class 2 civil penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per erroneous report.

Stand PAC, Stand Independent, Christy, Druffel, Meneely, and Miller have an opportunity to personally appear before the Registry at 10:30 a. m. on October 12, 2016, at the Registry’s regularly scheduled meeting to show cause why civil penalties should not be assessed against them in the matters set forth above. This open meeting will be held in Room 104 of Parkway Towers, 404 James Robertson Parkway, in Nashville. Respondents and Complainants have the right to be represented by counsel at this meeting.

As an alternative to personally appearing before the Registry at its October 12, 2016 meeting, the Respondents may wish to submit sworn statements, along with any pertinent attachments, as an explanation as to why civil penalties should not be assessed against it.

In order to exercise the option to personally appear before the Registry at its October 12, 2016 meeting, Respondents should direct written notice of appearance to the Registry office. This notice should be received by the Registry no later than October 4, 2016. Any sworn statements which you may want to submit to the Registry for consideration should be received by the Registry office no later than October 4, 2016. The original sworn statements must be received by the Registry; faxed or scanned copies are not acceptable.

The Committee is advised that the opportunity being provided to personally appear before the Registry prior to the issuance of any civil penalty assessment order against it is not in lieu of any contested case hearing rights which you may be entitled to under the Tennessee Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, T.C.A. §4-5-301, et seq., if the Registry determines to issue such an order.

CAMPAIGN FINANCE
FAQS

1. Who must file Campaign Financial Disclosure Statements?

PROSPECTIVE CANDIDATES. Any individual who receives contributions or makes expenditures (except for incidental expenditures) to determine if he or she will be a candidate for state or local public office is required to report to the appropriate agency. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(3)

ANNOUNCED CANDIDATES. Any individual who has made a formal announcement of his or her candidacy for a state or local elected public office or who has formally qualified to seek election to public office in a primary or general election in Tennessee is required to report to the appropriate agency. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(3)

CANDIDATES EXEMPTED. A local candidate may be exempt from the Campaign Financial Disclosure Act's requirements if he or she is seeking a public office for which the service is part-time and for which the compensation is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) per month. This exemption does not apply if the public office being sought is that of a chief administrative officer or if the candidate spends more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) seeking election to the public office. T.C.A. § 2-10-101(b)

2. Where must candidates file reports?

CANDIDATES FOR STATE PUBLIC OFFICE. Candidates and single-candidate political campaign committees involved in elections for state public offices (Governor, member of the General Assembly, delegate to a Tennessee Constitutional Convention, District Attorney General, District Public Defender, Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, Judge of the Court of Appeals, Supreme Court Justice, Chancellor, Circuit Court Judge, Criminal Court Judge and Probate Court Judge) must file all required reports with the Registry of Election Finance, 404 James Robertson Parkway, Suite 104, Nashville, TN 37243-1360. T.C.A. § 2-10-105(a)

CANDIDATES FOR LOCAL PUBLIC OFFICE. Candidates or single-candidate political campaign committees involved in elections for local public offices (all offices not listed above as state public offices) must file all required reports with the election commission of the county or counties where the election will be held. T.C.A. § 2-10-105(b)

3. What must a candidate do to begin a campaign operation?

POLITICAL CAMPAIGN TREASURERS. Before any monies can be received or spent, (except for incidental expenditures made by an individual to determine whether to be a candidate), each candidate must certify the name and address of its political treasurer to the Registry of Election Finance for a state election and to the county election commission for a local election. This is accomplished by completing and filing an appointment of political treasurer statement. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(3) and T.C.A. § 2-10-105(4)(e)(1)

A candidate may appoint himself or herself as the political treasurer for a campaign. If a candidate appoints another person to act as political treasurer, the candidate must co-sign all reports required to be filed under the Campaign Financial Disclosure Act. T.C.A. § 2-10-105(4)(e)(1)

CAMPAIGN BANK ACCOUNT. A candidate must open and maintain a separate bank account into which all campaign contributions are to be deposited. Additionally, all expenditures from campaign funds must be expended from this bank account. Rule 0530-1-1-.01(1), Rule 0530-1-1-.02(1) and Rule 0530-1-1-.02(4)

If a person is a candidate for more than one public office, the candidate must maintain separate campaign bank accounts for each office sought. Rule 0530-1-3-.02(3)(a)

4. How long is an appointment of treasurer statement effective?

CANDIDATES - PRIMARY, GENERAL ELECTIONS. A political treasurer appointed by a candidate or single-candidate political campaign committee may serve for both the primary and general elections. After the last election in which that candidate or committee is involved in that election year, monies shall not be received or spent for a future election until the candidate or committee has formally appointed a political treasurer for the future election year and filed a report of that appointment with the Registry of Election Finance or the appropriate county election commission. (The new appointment must be filed, even if the treasurer is the same individual who served in that capacity in the candidate's previous election.) T.C.A. § 2-10-105(g)

CHANGE OF TREASURERS. Candidates must notify the Registry or the appropriate county election commission of any changes in the office of political treasurer. An appointment of political treasurer statement must be completed and filed for the individual who replaces the previous treasurer.

5. What information must be reported in a campaign financial disclosure statement?

CONTRIBUTIONS. A reportable contribution is defined by the law as being “any advance, conveyance, deposit, distribution, transfer of funds, loan, loan guaranty, personal funds of a candidate, payment, gift, or subscription, of money or like thing of value, and any contract, agreement, promise or other obligation. . . .made for the purpose of influencing a measure or nomination for election or the election of any person for public office.” Additionally, any of these items given to an officeholder "for the purpose of defraying any expenses. . .incurred in connection with the performance of the officeholder's duties, responsibilities, or constituent services" are reportable as contributions. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(4)

IN-KIND CONTRIBUTIONS. In-kind contributions are goods or services provided to a candidate without charge (such as the use of equipment or advertisement materials at no cost to the candidate) and must be listed separately on the campaign financial disclosure statement from other campaign contributions. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(c)(1) and Rule 0530-1-1-.03(6)

An in-kind contribution is considered to be made and is reportable during the period in which the contribution is made or performed, not when the cost of the contribution is billed or paid. The amount for an in-kind contribution which should be reported by a candidate should be the fair market value for such goods or services provided. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(d)

If the actual cost of a in-kind contribution is not known at the time when it is reportable, an estimate of the cost shall be reported during the period that the contribution is made or performed, and the disclosure report shall indicate that the amount reported is estimated. If the actual cost of the in-kind contribution as indicated on the bill for the goods or services is different than the amount reported, the candidate shall adjust the amount reported on a later disclosure statement covering the period in which payment for the in-kind contribution is made. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(d)

EXPENDITURES. A reportable expenditure is defined by statute as “a purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit or gift of money or anything of value made for the purpose of influencing a measure or the nomination for election or election of any person to public office.” T.C.A. § 2-10-102(6)(A)

LOANS. A campaign loan must be disclosed by a candidate during the reporting period that the loan is made. A loan must continue to be disclosed on future campaign financial disclosure statements until the loan is paid back in full or a statement has been filed with the appropriate campaign financial disclosure statement by the candidate stating that the loan will not be repaid and is to be considered a contribution to the campaign. Rule 0530-1-1-.06(1) and Rule 0530-1-1-.06(2)

OBLIGATIONS. Goods and services received on credit which are not paid for during the reporting period received must be disclosed as an obligation by the candidate during the reporting period that the obligation is incurred. This obligation must continue to be disclosed by the candidate or committee on campaign financial disclosure statements until fully paid. Payments on the obligation shall be disclosed as expenditures by the candidate on the appropriate campaign financial disclosure statement(s). Rule 0530-1-1-.10(1)

6. What details are required in campaign financial disclosure statements?

Short Form. Candidates are exempt from filing a detailed disclosure statement if neither contributions received nor expenditures made during a reporting period for which a statement is submitted exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000). The candidate must report the balance of contributions on hand, outstanding loans and outstanding obligations. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(1)

Detailed Disclosure. A candidate which has over one thousand dollars ($1,000) in contributions and/or expenditures must complete a detailed disclosure and list contributions, expenditures, loans and obligations as described below. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(2)(A)(i)

Contributions. Contributions totaling one hundred dollars ($100) or less from a single source during the reporting period may be totaled and reported as a single item. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(2)(A)(i)

Candidates are required to list the full name, complete address, amount, date of receipt of contribution, and the election the contribution is designated for, for each person or organization who contributes a total of more than one hundred dollars ($100) during a reporting period. In addition, if this contribution is from an individual you must also list the occupation and employer of the contributor. A candidate that makes a "best effort" to obtain the address, occupation and employer for a contribution is considered to be in compliance with the requirement. "Best Effort" would include requesting the information on an invitation and stating that the information is required by state law for contributions over $100 or requesting the information in a letter sent by first class postage and stating that the information is required by state law for contributions over $100. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(A)(i)

For example, a person who contributes fifty dollars ($50) one day, fifty dollars ($50) the following day and one dollar ($1) the next day would have to be specifically listed on the campaign financial disclosure statement as having contributed one hundred one dollars ($101), if all those monies were contributed during one reporting period. Likewise, a person who buys five (5) tickets to a campaign fundraiser at twenty-five dollars ($25) each would have to be specifically listed on the campaign financial disclosure statement as having contributed one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125). A contributor may designate his/her contribution to a candidate by indicating in writing the specific election to which the contribution is intended to apply.

Expenditures. Expenditures totaling one hundred dollars ($100) or less to a single payee during the reporting period are not required to be itemized. These expenditures may be broken down and totaled by general categories (such as gas, food, etc.). For example, purchases of twenty-five dollars ($25) of gas at five different service stations would be shown as "Gas -- $125". T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(B)

The law requires candidates to list the full name, complete address, amount and detailed purpose for each person or organization to whom a total of more than one hundred dollars ($100) was paid during a reporting period. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(B)

When a purchase is made with a credit card, the purchase must be disclosed as a payment to the vendor (not the credit card company). For example, if printing is purchased from ABC Printing with a credit card, the payee must be listed as ABC Printing. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(B)

Purchases of goods and services must be disclosed as a purchase from the actual vendor and not as a purchase from a third party who is reimbursed for the purchase. For example, if a campaign worker goes to ABC Printing and pays for printing and is then reimbursed by the campaign for the printing, the disclosure must list ABC Printing as the vendor and not the campaign worker. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(B)

When listing the purpose of an expenditure, the words "reimbursement", "credit card purchase", "other" and "campaign expenditure" may not be used as the purpose. The purpose must be detailed enough to show that the expenditure was an allowable expenditure. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(B)

Loans. Itemized information must be provided for all loans for more than one hundred dollars ($100) from one creditor during a reporting period. This information includes the full name and address of each creditor, and the date that the loan was made must be provided. In addition, any endorsers or guarantors for a loan must be listed by full name and address and the amount of the loan which is guaranteed by that person must be disclosed. The outstanding loan balance at the beginning of the reporting period, any additional loans received during that period, any loan payments made during the period and the outstanding loan balance at the end of the reporting period must also be disclosed. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(A)(i)

Obligations. All obligations owed at the end of a reporting period for more than one hundred dollars ($100) to one creditor must be itemized. The itemized information includes the full name and address of the creditor. In addition, the outstanding obligations' balance at the beginning of the reporting period, any additional obligations' incurred during the period, any payments made to the creditor during the period and the outstanding obligations balance at the end of the reporting period must be disclosed.

Such a report also is due if a candidate or single-candidate committee for local public office or single-measure committee involved in a

The following are NOT campaign contributions and are not required to be reported:

- a) Volunteer Work. Services, including expenses provided without compensation by a candidate, or any individuals who volunteer a portion or all of their time on behalf of a candidate are not contributions. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(4)(A)
- b) Publicity. Not included within the meaning of contribution is any news story, commentary or editorial distributed through the facilities of any broadcasting station, newspaper, magazine or other periodical publication, unless such facilities are owned wholly or in part or controlled by a political party, political committee or candidate. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(4)(B)

- d) Internal Communications. Not included within the meaning of contribution is any written, oral or electronically transmitted communication by any membership organization or corporation to its members or stockholders, if such membership organization or corporation is not organized primarily for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election or election of any person to public office. However, if the organization or corporation simply finances the dissemination, distribution or republication in whole or in part of campaign materials prepared by the candidate or candidate’s committee, then such financing shall be considered a campaign contribution. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(4)(D)

13. Are there any dollar limitations on the amount of campaign contributions that a candidate may accept from a person or a PAC?

Pursuant to the Campaign Contribution Limits Act of 1995, T.C.A. 2-10-301, et seq., there are limits on how much monies that a person or a PAC may contribute to a candidate’s campaign per election and how much monies that a candidate may accept for an election from a person or PAC. Those dollar limitations are based on the office sought by the candidate. Those limits are as follows:

Statewide Office (Governor)	$4,000	$11,800	50% of total contributions	$393,800
State Senate	$1,500	$11,800	$118,100	$63,000
State Rep /All Other State <sup>2</sup> and Local Offices	$1,500	$7,800	$118,100	$31,600

<sup>1</sup> Political Party PACs include those committees controlled by a political party on the national, state or local level and caucuses of a political party established by members of either house of the General Assembly. T.C.A. § 2-10-302

<sup>2</sup> Other State Offices includes Criminal Court Judges, Circuit Court Judges, Chancellors, Probate Court Judges, District Attorney Generals and Public Defenders. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(13)

For purposes of dollar limitations, a primary election, general election, run-off election or special election are each considered a separate election with separate contribution limits. For example, a candidate for state senate in the August primary election could accept $1,500 from John Doe, and if the candidate also runs in the general election, he/she could accept another $1,500 from John Doe for the general election.

14. What is included as a contribution for purposes of the contribution limitations?

Campaign contributions made by cash or a written instrument, such as a check, would be subject to the contribution limitations of the law, as well as in-kind contributions. Loans may also be considered a campaign contribution and subject to the contribution limits (see below and question 15.)

A person who endorses or guarantees a candidate's campaign loan shall be considered to have made a contribution, subject to the contribution limitations, to the candidate's campaign in the amount of the endorsement or guaranty. Where the portion of the loan for which the endorser or guarantor is liable is not specified in the written agreement, each endorser or guarantor shall be considered to have made a contribution in that proportion of the unpaid balance that each endorser or guarantor bears to the total number of endorsers or guarantors.

A person making a loan to a candidate from their personal monies shall be considered to have made a contribution, subject to the contribution limitations, in the amount of the outstanding loan. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(4)

15. What is not included as a contribution for purposes of the contribution limitations?

The limitations do not apply to the retention or transfer of funds by a candidate to his/her own campaign from surplus funds from another campaign of the candidate. (Please remember that a candidate shall not transfer funds from a local campaign account to a legislative or gubernatorial campaign account.)

The limitations do not apply to a contribution, including a loan, made by a candidate to his/her own campaign.

A loan obtained by a candidate from a financial institution is not subject to the dollar limitations if the loan meets the following criteria: T.C.A. § 2-10-304

- a) Is made in the ordinary course of business;
- b) Is made on a basis reasonably designated to assure repayment, evidenced by a written instrument and subject to a payment due date or amortization schedule; and
- c) Bears the usual and customary interest rate of the lending institution.

16. What are the restrictions on the accepting of campaign contributions?

Cash Contributions. No person may make cash contributions to any candidate, in the aggregate that exceeds $50.00 per election. PACs may not make cash contributions to candidates. T.C.A. § 2-10-311(a), T.C.A. § 2-10-311(b) and T.C.A. § 2-10-311(c)

Blackout Periods. From the convening of the General Assembly in organizational session through the earlier of June 1 or the last day of regular session in odd numbered years and from the convening of regular legislative session to the earlier of May 15 or the conclusion of annual session in even numbered years and from the convening of an extraordinary session through the conclusion of extraordinary session, the governor or a legislator may not have a fundraiser or solicit or accept contributions for the governor or legislator's benefit or for the benefit of another legislative candidate or gubernatorial candidate, a political party legislative caucus PAC or any member of a political party legislative caucus PAC. T.C.A. § 2-10-310(a)(1)

Additionally, from the convening of the General Assembly in organizational session through the earlier of June 1 or the last day of regular session in odd numbered years and from the convening of regular legislative session to the earlier of May 15 or the conclusion of annual session in even numbered years and from the convening of an extraordinary session through the conclusion of extraordinary session, a political party PAC is prohibited from conducting a fundraiser, soliciting or accepting campaign contributions for the benefit of a legislative candidate, gubernatorial candidate, a caucus or any caucus member. T.C.A. § 2-10-310(b)

An employer of a lobbyist or a PAC controlled by an employer of a lobbyist is prohibited from making a campaign contribution to a gubernatorial or legislative candidate during regular or extraordinary legislative session (this restriction is found in the lobbying statutes). T.C.A. § 3-6-304

During the nine (9) day period prior to any election day, a PAC is prohibited from making a campaign contribution to a candidate for state or local public office, unless the committee is a political party PAC. T.C.A. § 2-10-117

17. Are corporate campaign contributions allowed?

Yes, beginning on June 1, 2011 corporate contributions are allowed to be made to candidates and PACs in Tennessee.

Corporations making campaign contributions totaling over $250 in the aggregate to candidates in a calendar quarter must register as a PAC and file campaign financial disclosure reports.

18. Can a candidate use funds from a previous election for a subsequent election?

All state and local candidates may transfer unexpended campaign funds to a future campaign for the same office by that candidate. State candidates may transfer any excess campaign funds to any future state or local campaign that the candidate establishes. Local candidates may transfer excess campaign funds only to future local campaigns that the candidate establishes. T.C.A. § 2-10-114

19. Are there any restrictions on the use of campaign contributions by candidates?

GENERALLY. A candidate for an elected public office is prohibited from using any campaign funds prior to, during or after an election for the candidate's own personal use. Personal use is defined as any use of funds that would require the candidate or official to treat the use as gross income under Section 61 of the IRS Code of 1986. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(b)(1)

Whether an expenditure of campaign funds by a candidate is made for a political purpose depends upon all the facts and circumstances surrounding the expenditure. An activity engaged in between elections by a candidate which is directly related to and supports the selection, nomination or election of that individual to public office is considered political activity. An expense which would be incurred by an individual regardless of that person's candidacy for public office is considered an expenditure for a nonpolitical purpose, except as allowed for the expenditure of surplus contributions.

ALLOWABLE USES. A candidate with surplus campaign funds from an election shall allocate unexpended funds to one (1) or more of the following:

a.) The funds may be retained or transferred to any campaign fund pursuant to Tennessee's reporting requirements, except a candidate for local office shall not transfer surplus funds from such an account to a campaign account for the General Assembly or governor. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(a)(1)

f.) The monies may be distributed to any organization which has received a determination of exemption from federal income taxation pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of 26 U.S.C. 501(c), if such organization is currently operating under such exemption. (Section 501(c)(3) includes any non-profit organization that operates exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, public safety testing, literacy, or educational purposes, or to foster national or amateur sport competition, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. Section 501(c)(4) covers any non-profit civic organization operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare and also includes certain local employee associations when the associations' net earnings are devoted to charitable, educational or recreational purposes.) T.C.A. § 2-10-114(a)(6)

g.) The funds may be used to defray any ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the office of the officeholder. Such expenses may include, but are not limited to the cost of advertisement, membership fees, and donations to community causes. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(a)(7)

h.) The funds may be distributed to any institution of public or private education in the state for the purpose of supplementing the funds of an existing scholarship trust or program. Please remember that state law requires that the organization to which you are making a contribution must have an up to date exemption from the Internal Revenue Service, in order for your contribution to be proper under this provision. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(a)(8)

A class two offense is the failure to file a report within thirty-five (35) days of service of notice of a delinquent report or any other violation of the Campaign Financial Disclosure Act. T.C.A. § 2-10-110(a)(2)

The law requires the Registry staff to send an assessment letter to the candidate before any class two (2) civil penalties are imposed by the Registry, advising the candidate or committee of the factual basis of the violation, the maximum penalty and the date that a response must be filed. T.C.A. § 2-10-110(a)(2)

VIOLATIONS OF THE CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS ACT OF 1995. The Registry is empowered to impose a maximum civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of the amount of all contributions made or accepted in excess of the limitations of the Act, whichever is greater. T.C.A. § 2-10-308(a)

A campaign contribution made or accepted in excess of the limitations of this Act shall not be a violation if the candidate refunds or returns the contribution to the person making the contribution within sixty (60) days of its receipt. T.C.A. § 2-10-307(b)

CONTESTED PENALTIES. To appeal any penalty imposed by the Registry, a candidate or committee must file a petition with the Registry within thirty (30) days after the date that the order is issued. An assessment order issued by the Registry becomes final and cannot be appealed thirty (30) days after it has been issued. T.C.A. § 2-10-308(c), T.C.A. § 2-10-308(d), Rule 0530-1-1-.12(3) and Rule 0530-1-1-.12(4)

26. If a candidate fails to file a disclosure statement, may that individual qualify as a candidate in future state or local elections?

A candidate in a state or local election who fails to file a required disclosure statement is ineligible to qualify as a candidate in any future state or local elections until the report is properly filed with the Registry and/or the local county election commission. T.C.A. § 2-10-110(d)

27. What happens if a candidate fails to pay an assessed civil penalty after an assessment order becomes final?

If a candidate does not pay assessed civil penalties within thirty (30) days of an assessment order becoming final or by the qualifying deadline for election, whichever is earlier, the candidate shall be ineligible to qualify as a candidate in any upcoming elections until the assessed penalties and related costs are paid. T.C.A. § 2-10-110(c)(2)

28. How does the Registry of Election Finance begin an investigation?

ON ITS OWN INITIATIVE. The Registry of Election Finance may, on its own initiative, conduct an investigation whenever it believes that a violation of the Campaign Financial Disclosure Act may have occurred. If the Registry investigates the records of any selected candidate, it may also investigate the records of all other candidates running for the same office in the same district or other appropriate geographic area. The Registry has the authority to hold hearings, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and compel the production of books, correspondence, papers and other records. T.C.A. § 2-10-206(a)(7) and T.C.A. § 2-10-213(a)(2)

UPON SWORN COMPLAINTS. An investigation also may be based on a sworn complaint. A registered voter of Tennessee may file a sworn complaint alleging that a statement filed regarding an election for which that voter was registered to vote does not conform to the law, that a statement filed is not accurate or that a person has failed to file a statement required by law. Sworn complaints regarding candidates or single-candidate political campaign committees for state public office should be filed with the Registry. Sworn complaints regarding elections for local public office should be filed with the district attorney general in the judicial district in which the voter resides. T.C.A. § 2-10-108

29. What guidelines will the Registry of Election Finance provide to candidates and political campaign committees regarding the Campaign Financial Disclosure Law?

The Registry of Election Finance may issue written advisory opinions when questions arise about the Campaign Financial Disclosure Act and its requirements. Anyone wishing to receive guidance on his or her own campaign finance activities should contact the Registry prior to undertaking the questioned activity. The Registry will issue written advisory opinions to individuals based on written requests describing specific facts and circumstances. The Registry will issue opinions only as to prospective activities. A candidate may rely upon an advisory opinion without threat of sanction with respect to the particular issues addressed if the candidate conforms his or her conduct to the requirements of the advisory opinion. T.C.A. § 2-10-207(3)

2-10-104. Affirmation of statements before witness.

All statements required by this part shall be signed by the person filing such statement in the presence of one (1) witness who shall sign such statements as a witness. The treasurer shall not be authorized to sign as a witness. Such person shall sign the statements prior to the filing of the statements. Statements required by this part do not have to be sworn to or affirmed by a notary.

2-10-105. Filing of contribution, loan and expenditure statements - Deadlines - Certification of treasurers and other officers - Retention of records - Additional reporting requirements.

(a) Each candidate for state public office and political campaign committee in a state election shall file with the registry of election finance a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made by or on behalf of such candidate or such committee. The statement of each candidate for state public office shall include the date of the receipt of each contribution, and the statement of a political campaign committee in a state election shall include the date of each expenditure that is a contribution to a candidate in any election.

(b) Each candidate for local public office and political campaign committee for a local election shall file with each county election commission of the county where the election is held a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made by or on behalf of such candidate or such committee. The statement of each candidate for local public office shall include the date of the receipt of each contribution, and the statement of a political campaign committee for a local election shall include the date of each expenditure that is a contribution to a candidate in any election.

(c) (1) The statements required by subsections (a) and (b) of each candidate, each single candidate political campaign committee, single measure political campaign or multicandidate political campaign committee shall be filed quarterly during an election year, within ten (10) days following the conclusion of the quarterly reports ending March 31, June 30, September 30 and January 15. Such candidate and political campaign committees shall also be required to file a pre-primary statement and pre-general election statement. The pre-primary statement shall cover the period from the last day included in the July quarterly statement through the tenth day before the primary election. Such pre-primary statement is due seven (7) days before the primary election. The pre-general election statement shall cover the period from the last day included in the October quarterly statement through the tenth day before the general election. Such pre-general election statement is due seven (7) days before the general election.

(2) Statements for any runoff election, from the last day included in any prior report through the tenth day before any such election shall be filed not later than seven (7) days before the election.

(3) Any candidate or political campaign committee filing a statement pursuant to subsection (e) before January 1 of the year in which the candidate or committee expects to be involved in an election shall file reports with the registry of election finance or the county election commission, whichever is required by subsections (a) and (b), by January 31 and July 15 immediately succeeding the filing, and semi-annually thereafter until the year of the election. If January 31 or July 15 falls on a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, the provisions of § 1-3-102 shall apply. The ending date of the January 31 reporting period is January 15. The ending date of the July 15 reporting period is June 30. A semiannual report is not required to be made if the reporting date is within sixty (60) days of a report otherwise required by this part.

(4) Each statement required by subsections (a) and (b) shall include transactions occurring since the preceding statement.

(d) Each multicandidate political campaign committee shall file reports according to subsection (c)(1). Each report shall include transactions occurring since the preceding report. Such reports shall be made available on the Internet as soon as practicable once such multicandidate political campaign committee has filed such information and the registry has reviewed such statements for accuracy and timeliness. (e) (1) Each candidate and each political campaign committee shall certify the name and address of the candidate's or committee's political treasurer to the registry of election finance or the county election commission, where appropriate, before the candidate or committee may receive a contribution or make an expenditure in a state or local election. A statement certifying a candidate's treasurer must contain the office the candidate is seeking and the year of the election. A state public officeholder shall also certify the name and address of such officeholder's political treasurer to the registry of election finance before the officeholder or the officeholder's political committee may accept a contribution to defray the expenses incurred in connection with the performance of the officeholder's duties or responsibilities, and a local officeholder shall so certify the name and address of such officeholder's treasurer to the appropriate county election commission. A candidate may serve as that candidate's own political treasurer. After the two-year period, the candidate or political campaign committee is authorized to destroy such records, absent any pending investigation by the registry of election finance or any other law enforcement agency, or absent any administrative or court proceeding. Once an investigation is closed by the registry of election finance, records may be destroyed upon a petition for approval to the registry of election finance.

(g) Separate reporting shall be required for both primary elections and general elections. Cumulative reporting for both primary and general elections for the same office in the same year is expressly prohibited. An appointment of a political treasurer pursuant to subsection (e) may be cumulative, and one (1) such appointment shall be sufficient for both a primary and general election for the same office in the same year. A successful primary candidate shall not be required to certify a political treasurer for the general election, if the candidate had previously certified such political treasurer prior to the primary election.

(h) (1) During the period beginning at twelve o'clock (12:00) midnight of the tenth day prior to a primary, general, runoff or special election or a referendum and extending through twelve o'clock (12:00) midnight of such election or referendum day, each candidate or political campaign committee shall, by telegram, facsimile machine, hand delivery or overnight mail delivery, file a report with the registry of election finance or the county election commission, whichever is required by subsections (a) and (b), of:

(A) The full name and address of each person from whom the candidate or committee has received and accepted a contribution, loan or transfer of funds during such period and the date of the receipt of each contribution in excess of the following amounts: a committee participating in the election of a candidate for any state public office, five thousand dollars ($5,000); or, a committee participating in the election of a candidate for any local public office, two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500). If the committee is participating in the election of candidates for offices with different reporting amounts, the amount shall be the lowest for any candidate in whose election the committee is participating or in which any committee is participating to which it makes or from which it receives a transfer of funds; and

(B) Such report shall include the amount and date of each such contribution or loan reported, and a brief description and valuation of each in-kind contribution. If a loan is reported, the report shall contain the name and address of the lender, of the recipient of the proceeds of the loan, and of any person who makes any type of security agreement binding such person or such person's property, directly or indirectly, for the repayment of all or any part of the loan.

(2) Each report required by subdivision (h)(1) shall be filed by the end of the next business day following the day on which the contribution to be reported is received.

(3) The registry shall develop appropriate forms for the report required by subdivision (h)(1) and make such forms available to the candidates and the county election commissions.

(i) Any state or local political party or caucus of such political party established by members of either house of the general assembly that controls or operates one (1) or more political campaign committees shall report all receipts and disbursements by the party in the same manner and at the same time that it reports contributions and expenditures by the party's political campaign committee.

(j) Reports filed under this section shall not be cumulative, except as provided in subsection (g) regarding appointment of a political treasurer. Each report shall reflect the total for its own reporting period.

(k) "Date of the receipt", as used in this section, means the date when the contribution was received by the candidate, candidate's committee, or treasurer.

2-10-106. Supplemental semiannual statements of contributions and expenditures - Funds maintained in segregated campaign accounts.

(a) If the final statement of a candidate shows an unexpended balance of contributions, continuing debts and obligations, or an expenditure deficit, the campaign treasurer shall file with the registry of election finance or the county election commission, whichever is required by § 2-10-105(a) and (b), a supplemental semiannual statement of contributions and expenditures. Beginning after filing the first quarterly report due after an election, subsequent supplemental statements shall be filed on a semiannual basis by candidates until the account shows no unexpended balance, continuing debts and obligations, expenditures, or deficit. A candidate may close out a campaign account by transferring any remaining funds to any campaign fund, subject to the requirements of this part and commence semiannual filing as provided by this part.

(b) Funds maintained in a separate segregated campaign account are not deemed to be the personal property of any candidate or other individual. Such funds are not subject to garnishment or any type of execution to satisfy the debts or obligations of any individual which are not campaign debts.

2-10-107. Content of statements - Closing out accounts - Reporting of in-kind contributions.

(a) A statement filed under § 2-10-105 or § 2-10-106 shall consist of either:

(1) A statement that neither the contributions received nor the expenditures made during the period for which the statement is submitted exceeded one thousand dollars ($1,000). Any statement filed pursuant to § 2-10-106 shall indicate whether an unexpended balance of contributions, continuing debts and obligations or an expenditure deficit exists; or

(2) (A) (i) A statement setting forth, under contributions, a list of all the contributions received, including the full name, complete address, occupation, and employer of each person who contributed a total amount of more than one hundred dollars ($100) during the period for which the statement is submitted, and the amount contributed by that person;

(ii) When a candidate or the treasurer of a political campaign committee shows that best efforts have been used to obtain, maintain and submit the complete address, occupation, and employer required for contributors, the statement shall be considered in compliance with this subdivision (a)(2)(A). "Best efforts" includes notifying the contributor by first class mail that further information concerning such contributor is required under state law, or by including on a written solicitation for contributions a clear request for the contributor's name, address, occupation and employer and by accurately stating that such information is required under state law for all persons contributing more than one hundred dollars ($100). "Date of the receipt", as used in this subdivision (a)(2)(A)(iii), means the date when the contribution was received by the candidate, candidate's committee, or treasurer. The statement shall list as a single item the total amount of contributions of one hundred dollars ($100) or less; and

(B) A statement setting forth, under expenditures, a list of all expenditures made, including the full name and address of each person to whom a total amount of more than one hundred dollars ($100) was paid during the period for which the statement is submitted, the total amount paid to that person, and the purpose of the payment which shall clearly identify that it is an allowable expenditure under § 2-10-114. The words "reimbursement", "credit card purchase", "other" and "campaign expense" shall not be considered acceptable descriptions for "purpose". Any purchase made with a credit card shall also be disclosed as a payment to the vendor providing the item or service. Credit card payments to separate vendors shall be disclosed as separate expenditures. The statement shall list the total amount of expenditures of one hundred dollars ($100) or less each, by category, without showing the exact amount of or vouching for each such expenditure.

(b) When any candidate or political campaign committee desires to close out a campaign account, it may file a statement to such effect at any time; provided, that the statement shall on its face show no unexpended balance, continuing debts or obligations or deficit.

The in-kind contribution list shall include:

(A) In-kind contributions of a value of one hundred dollars ($100) or less may be listed as a single item; and

(B) (i) In-kind contributions of a value of more than one hundred dollars ($100) during the period for which the statement is submitted, and for each such contribution, the category of the contribution, the name, address, occupation and employer of each person who contributed it.

(ii) When a candidate or the treasurer of a political campaign committee shows that best efforts have been used to obtain, maintain and submit the complete address, occupation, and employer required for contributors, the statement shall be considered in compliance with this subdivision (c)(1)(B). "Best efforts" includes notifying the contributor by first class mail that further information concerning such contributor is required under state law, or by including on a written solicitation for contributions a clear request for the contributor's name, address, occupation and employer and by accurately stating such information is required under state law for all persons contributing more than one hundred dollars ($100). The registry of election finance shall, by rule, define and set guidelines for what is considered "best efforts."

(iii) The statement of each candidate shall include the date of the receipt of each in-kind contribution and the statement of a political campaign committee shall include the date of each expenditure that is an in-kind contribution to a candidate.

(2) Within ninety (90) days of February 15, 2006, by rule promulgated in accordance with the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, compiled in title 4, chapter 5, the registry of election finance shall enumerate a nonexclusive listing of examples of the various categories of contributions that constitute "in-kind contributions" requiring disclosure. Upon promulgating such rule, the registry shall provide a copy of such rule to each member of the general assembly and each qualified candidate for state office. Any changes or revisions to the rules shall be promulgated pursuant to § 4-55-103(1).

(d) An in-kind contribution is deemed to be made and shall be reportable in the period when such contribution is made or performed and not when the cost is billed or paid. The actual cost of the in-kind contribution, if known, shall be reported in the period such contribution is made or performed. If the actual cost of the in-kind contribution is not known, an estimate of the cost shall be reported in the period such contribution is made or performed, and the report shall indicate that the amount reported is estimated. If the actual cost, as indicated on the bill, is different from the amount reported, such amount shall be amended or adjusted on a later report covering the period in which payment is made.

(e) A statement filed under § 2-10-105 or § 2-10-106 shall also list any unexpended balance, any deficit and any continuing financial obligations of the candidate, campaign or committee.

(f) Payments to a person as reimbursement for expenditures made by the person on behalf of the candidate or committee shall be disclosed as payments to the vendor who provided the item or service to the candidate or committee, not the person who is reimbursed.

2-10-110. Penalties.

(a) The registry of election finance may impose a civil penalty for a violation of this part as provided in this section.

(1) “Class 1 offense” means the late filing of any report or statement required by this part. A Class 1 offense shall be punishable by a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per day up to a maximum of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750).

(A) For local public offices, the county administrator of elections shall have personally served upon, or send by return receipt requested mail, an assessment letter to any candidate or committee upon the administrator's discovery that a due report has not been filed. The administrator shall forward a copy of such notice to the registry of election finance. For state public offices, the registry of election finance shall have personally served upon, or send by return receipt requested mail, an assessment letter to any candidate or committee upon the registry or its appropriate staff discovering that a due report has not been filed. A civil penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per day shall begin to accrue five (5) days after personal service or receipt of the letter and shall continue to accrue until the report is filed or for thirty (30) days, whichever occurs first; provided, that no civil penalty shall be imposed by the registry of election finance if a candidate fails to list a contribution on a filed report but corrects the omission to the registry's satisfaction within ten (10) business days from the date on which the candidate is served process by, or receives notice from, the registry. This ten-day period shall not serve to stay the running of any time period or reduce any penalty established by this section. A candidate shall only be allowed to correct up to two (2) omissions in one (1) calendar year and the total of the omissions shall not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000). Any omission corrected by the candidate prior to the registry's discovery of the omission shall not count against the limitation on correction of omissions.

(B) For any Class 1 offense, the registry of election finance, through its appropriate staff, shall send an assessment letter to a candidate or committee in a form sufficient to advise the candidate or committee of the factual basis of the violation, the maximum penalty and the date a response to the letter must be filed. If a disclosure report is returned to a candidate or committee for correction, a copy of the original shall be retained on file until the corrected report is returned to the registry of election finance. If the original filing was in compliance with the intent of the law and minor errors are corrected within the date set for a response, no penalty shall be assessed.

(C) To request a waiver, reduction, or to in any way contest a Class 1 penalty imposed by the registry of election finance, a candidate for a state or local public office shall file a petition with the registry of election finance. Such petition may be considered as a contested case proceeding under the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, compiled in title 4, chapter 5.

(2) “Class 2 offense” means failing to file a report required by this part within thirty-five (35) days after service of process or receipt of notice by registered or certified mail of an assessment or any other violation of the requirements of this part. A Class 2 offense is punishable by a maximum civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or fifteen percent (15%) of the amount in controversy, if fifteen percent (15%) of the amount in controversy is greater than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(A) For state and local public offices, the registry of election finance may impose a civil penalty for any Class 2 offense; provided, that no penalty shall be imposed by the registry of election finance if a candidate fails to list a contribution on a filed report but corrects the omission to the registry's satisfaction within ten (10) business days from the date on which the candidate is served process by, or receives notice from, the registry. This ten-day period shall not serve to stay the running of any time period established by this section. A candidate shall only be allowed to correct up to two (2) omissions in one (1) calendar year and the total of the omissions shall not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000). Any omission corrected by the candidate prior to the registry's discovery of the omission shall not count against the limitation on correction of omissions.

(B) To request a waiver, reduction, or to in any way contest a Class 2 penalty imposed by the registry of election finance, a candidate for a state or local public office shall file a petition with the registry of election finance. Such petition may be considered as a contested case proceeding under the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, compiled in title 4, chapter 5.

(C) “Amount in controversy” means, as appropriate to the case, the greater of the total expenditures or total contributions, either of which or both of which are shown on a late report subsequently filed, or the amount of an expenditure or contribution that was not reported or was incorrectly reported.

(b) Penalties imposed under this part shall be deposited into the state general fund.

(c) (1) The registry of election finance shall maintain a register of all civil penalties imposed under this part and remaining unpaid.

(2) If a civil penalty lawfully assessed and any lawfully assessed cost attendant to the penalty are not paid within thirty (30) days after the assessment becomes final, or by the qualifying deadline for election, whichever is earlier, the candidate owing such civil penalty shall be ineligible to qualify for election to any state or local public office until such penalty and costs are paid.

(3) If a civil penalty authorized by this section is imposed, it shall be considered as a personal judgment against the candidate.

(d) A candidate for state or local public office who fails to file any statement or report required by this part shall be ineligible to qualify for election to any state or local public office until such statement or report is filed with either the registry or the appropriate county election commission, or both.

(e) It is the intent of the general assembly that the sanctions provided in this section shall be the civil penalties enacted into law by Acts 1989, ch. 585.

(f) (1) For any civil penalty levied by the registry against a multicandidate political campaign committee under this section or § 2-10-308, the treasurer of the committee is personally liable for the penalty.

(2) If a civil penalty lawfully assessed and any lawfully assessed cost attendant to the penalty are not paid within thirty (30) days after the assessment becomes final, the multicandidate political campaign committee owing the civil penalty shall be prohibited from receiving contributions; making expenditures to support or oppose candidates; or making expenditures to other multicandidate political campaign committees; and the treasurer and officers of such delinquent multicandidate political campaign committee shall be prohibited from creating another multicandidate political campaign committee or serving as a treasurer or an officer for another multicandidate political campaign committee until such penalty and all costs attendant to the penalty are paid in full.

For each local candidate who is reported to the registry of election finance as filing late, the county election commission shall be required to file, on a form prescribed by the registry, information pertaining to the late filing. The registry shall determine by rule what information from the county election commission shall be necessary. Any changes or revisions to the rules shall be promulgated pursuant to § 4-55-103(1).

2-10-112. Application of outstanding balance of campaign account cannot exceed campaign contribution limits.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any candidate who has a previous campaign account with an outstanding balance and who chooses to apply contributions to that previous campaign account, shall not exceed the campaign contribution limits in title 2, chapter 10, part 3, for the election cycle during which the candidate accepts the contribution, regardless of whether such candidate applies the amount to the previous campaign account or to the current campaign account. Under no circumstances shall the candidate exceed the contribution limits for the election cycle to which the previous campaign account with an outstanding balance applies.

(b) (1) Except as provided in subsection (a), no candidate for public office shall use any campaign funds for any other purpose other than a contribution or expenditure as defined by this part. The disbursement of campaign funds for a candidate's own personal use is not permitted. For the purpose of this section, "personal use" means any use by which the candidate for public office or elected public official would be required to treat the amount of the expenditure as gross income under 26 U.S.C. § 61, or any subsequent corresponding Internal Revenue Code section.

(2) Expenditures that are specifically prohibited under this section include, but are not limited to:

(H) Admission to a sporting event, concert, theater, activity, charitable event or other form of entertainment, unless the event is an expense associated with a legitimate campaign or officeholder activity, where the tickets to such event are provided to students attending schools, guests or constituents of the candidate or officeholder, or persons involved in the candidate's or officeholder's campaign;

(I) Payments for grooming or enhancing one's personal appearance unrelated to campaign activities; or

(J) Payment of any fines, fees, or penalties assessed pursuant to this chapter or title 3, chapter 6.

(3) A violation of this subsection (b) is a Class 2 offense as defined in § 2-10-110(a)(2).

(d) (1) In the event a candidate for public office dies with an unexpended balance of contributions in such candidate's campaign account and the provisions of subsection (c) are not applicable, then the following individuals, in the descending order, are authorized to allocate such unexpended balance to those persons, political parties, or charitable organizations listed in subdivisions (a)(2)-(6) and (a)(8):

(D) The next of kin of the deceased candidate, if the provisions of subdivisions (d) (1)(B) and (C) do not apply.

(2) If a decision is not made by any such individual, or individuals where subdivision (d)(1)(D) applies, within one (1) year of the date of death of the deceased candidate, then the unexpended balance shall be distributed by the registry of election finance to the volunteer public education trust fund established under title 49, chapter 3, part 4.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), if a member of the general assembly raises funds for a local public office during the time the general assembly is in session in accordance with § 2-10-310(a), then any unexpended balance of contributions in the campaign account established by that member of the general assembly for the member's candidacy for local public office shall not be used for or distributed to a campaign fund:

2-10-118. Filing by responsible party with prior assessment record.

(a) It is unlawful for a responsible party of a multicandidate political campaign committee who has a prior assessment record to intentionally fail to file a required report under this chapter, for which the party is responsible for filing, within thirty-five (35) days after service of process or receipt of notice from the registry by registered or certified mail. - (2) A campaign contribution is considered made to and reportable by a candidate or political committee when the contribution is delivered to a candidate or political campaign committee, or any agent thereof.
- (3) Personal funds of a candidate or any personal loan used by a candidate for routine living expenses that he or she would have incurred without candidacy, including the costs of food and residence, are not campaign contributions.
- (4) A campaign contribution that is made by a PAC by check or other similar written instrument must be provided to a candidate or candidate's political campaign committee within thirty (30) days of the date that the check or other written instrument is written.
- (5) A political campaign committee making an in-kind campaign contribution must notify a candidate or political campaign committee receiving the contribution of the amount and purpose of the contribution, in writing, within five (5) business days after the in-kind contribution is made or performed.
- (6) An in-kind contribution is the provision of any goods or services to a candidate or political campaign committee without charge or at a charge which is less than the fair market value for such goods or services.
- (7) Where goods or services are provided to a candidate or political campaign committee at a charge which is less than the fair market value for such goods or services, the candidate or committee must report as an in-kind contribution the difference between the amount paid for the goods or services and the fair market value of such goods or services.

The method to determine that amount shall be documented by the committee, and this documentation shall be submitted with the financial disclosure report on which the in-kind contribution is reported. Procedures set forth in the rules then should be followed for notifying the candidate or political campaign committee receiving the in-kind contribution.

0530—1—1—.04 EXPENDITURES FROM CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS.

- (1) An expenditure made by check or other written instrument is deemed to have been made and is reportable during the reporting period in which the check or other written instrument is written. A cash expenditure shall be deemed to be made and is reportable during the reporting period in which the money is delivered to the payee.

However, descriptions such as miscellaneous, campaign expenditure, other expenses, advance reimbursement or credit card payment shall not be deemed sufficient.
- (4) A candidate who is an officeholder and who has an unexpended balance of campaign contributions may expend those monies for expenses which are incidental to the candidate's holding public office. If a candidate/officeholder incurs expenses which would exist regardless of being an officeholder, those expenses are not considered to be incidental to holding office and are not ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the office of the officeholder for purposes of T.C.A. §§2—10—114(a)(7).
- (5) Whether an expenditure of campaign funds by a candidate is made for a political purpose depends upon all the facts and circumstances surrounding the expenditure. An activity engaged in between elections by a candidate which is directly related to and supports the selection, nomination or elections of that individual to public office is considered political activity. An expense which would be incurred by an individual regardless of that person's candidacy for public office is considered an expenditure for a nonpolitical purpose under T.C.A. §§2—10—114(b) and may not be made from the individual's campaign funds, except as set forth in T.C.A. §§2—10—114(a).

- (2) When, because of the closeness in time between two (2) elections, a post-election campaign financial disclosure report would be filed by a candidate or political campaign committee after the subsequent election in which the candidate or political

- (3) No campaign financial disclosure statement required to be filed by the Campaign Financial Disclosure Law may be filed before the day following the ending date of the reporting period, by a candidate or political campaign committee such that there is a failure by the candidate or the political campaign committee to disclose the required campaign financial information for the full reporting period as required by law.

0530—1—1—.09 COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES.

If the funds are commingled, the county executive committee must report its receipts and expenditures of all funds on its campaign financial disclosure reports.

0530—1—1—11 INFORMAL SHOW CAUSE HEARINGS.

- (1) When Registry staff presents documentation to the Registry indicating that a candidate or political campaign committee has possibly violated the Campaign Financial Disclosure Law and before the Registry takes action to assess civil penalties for a violation, the Registry shall send a written notification to the candidate or committee of the allegations and the class and maximum amount of civil penalties which would be assessed for such a violation. Additionally, this notification shall inform the candidate or committee of the date, place and time of the Registry's next regularly scheduled meeting and provide the candidate or committee the opportunity to choose one (1) of the following options:
  - (a) The candidate, designee of a candidate, or committee shall be provided an opportunity to personally appear before the Registry at its next regularly scheduled meeting to show why civil penalties should not be assessed; or
  - (b) The candidate, designee of a candidate or committee must be provided an opportunity to submit a sworn statement to the Registry which has been sworn to before a notary public, along with any pertinent attachments, to show why civil penalties should not be assessed.
- (2) The opportunity provided to a candidate, the designee of a candidate, or committee to personally appear before the Registry or to submit a sworn statement for the Registry's consideration as to whether to assess civil penalties against the candidate or committee is not in lieu of any contested case hearing rights that the candidate or committee may have pursuant to Tennessee Administrative Procedures Act, T.C.A. §4—5—301, et seq.
- (3) In order for a candidate, the designee of a candidate, or committee to take advantage of the opportunity to personally appear before the Registry at its regularly scheduled meeting, the candidate or committee must request such an appearance in writing. #### 0530—1—1—12 ISSUANCE AND APPEAL OF CIVIL PENALTY ASSESSMENT ORDERS.

- (1) A civil penalty order issued by the Registry assessing penalties against a candidate or political campaign committee cannot be issued unless a majority of the Registry members present have voted that such an order be issued. Once a majority of the Registry members have voted that such an order should be issued, the chairperson or executive director shall have the authority to issue the order on behalf of the Registry.
  - (a) A civil penalty order assessing civil penalties shall be mailed by registered or certified mail to the candidate or political campaign committee to whom the order is issued, and the party to whom it is issued shall be provided thirty (30) days from the date of the issuance of the order to either appeal the Registry's order pursuant to the procedures provided for under Tennessee's Administrative Procedures Act, T.C.A. §4—5—301, et seq., or to pay the assessed penalties to the Registry.
  - (b) If the civil penalty assessment order is returned to the Registry from the United States Postal Service as unclaimed, then the order shall be reissued and mailed by the Registry by overnight mail delivery to the candidate or political campaign committee. The candidate or committee shall then have thirty (30) days from the date of the reissuance of the order to either appeal the Registry's order pursuant to procedures provided under the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, compiled in T.C.A., Title 4, Chapter 5, Part 3, or to pay the assessed penalties to the Registry.

- (3) In order for a candidate or a political campaign committee to appeal an order issued by the Registry assessing civil penalties, the candidate or political campaign committee shall file a petition with the Registry. - (4) If the Registry's order assessing civil penalties is not appealed within thirty (30) days of its issuance by the candidate or political campaign committee to whom it was issued, the order becomes a final order.
- (5) If a candidate or political campaign committee fails to either appeal a civil penalty order issued to it by the Registry or to pay the Registry the assessed penalties and the Registry's order becomes final without the party taking any such action, upon the order becoming final, the Registry shall forward the matter to the State Attorney General and Reporter's office. The Registry shall request that the Attorney General take legal action on its behalf to collect the civil penalties from the candidate or committee against whom the action has been taken.

0530—1—1—13 RECONSIDERATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF CIVIL PENALTY ASSESSMENT ORDERS.

- (1) If a candidate or political campaign committee against whom a civil penalty assessment order has been issued by the Registry wishes to request that the Registry reconsider the matter, the candidate or committee must follow these procedures to have the Registry consider the request:
  - (a) The candidate or committee must file a written request with the Registry asking that the assessment of civil penalties against the candidate or committee be reconsidered by the Registry. The written request for reconsideration must be filed with the Registry within fourteen (14) days of the date of the issuance of the Registry's order assessing civil penalties.
  - (b) For a written request for reconsideration to be considered by the Registry, the candidate or committee must include additional information concerning the matter that was not available for the Registry's consideration at its meeting at which the civil penalty order was issued by the Registry. If no additional information is included in the request for reconsideration, the Registry may choose not to reconsider the matter.
  - (c) If the candidate or political campaign committee files a written request for reconsideration of an assessment of civil penalties with the Registry and asks to make a personal appearance before the Registry at a regularly scheduled meeting and, without good cause, fails to appear at that meeting without having notified the Registry prior to the meeting, the Registry will deny the request for reconsideration.
  - (d) While a request for reconsideration of a civil penalty order by a candidate or political campaign committee is pending before the Registry, the Registry's order assessing penalties does not become final until a determination is made by the Registry as to the request for reconsideration. Upon a vote of a majority of the Registry members to deny a candidate's or political campaign committee's request for reconsideration of any civil penalty assessment order, the Registry shall issue an order denying the request and providing the candidate or committee ten (10) days after the date of the issuance of the order to appeal the original assessment order under the Tennessee Administrative Procedures Act before the order becomes a final order.

0530—1—1—14 ISSUANCE OF ADVISORY OPINIONS BY THE REGISTRY.

- (1) A candidate may submit to the Registry a written request for an advisory opinion as to the application of the Campaign Financial Disclosure Law. In submitting such a request, the candidate shall include a complete description of all facts relevant to the specific transaction or activity which is the subject of the opinion request.
- (2) After reviewing a candidate's request for an advisory opinion and if the Registry staff determines that more information from the candidate is necessary in order for the Registry to properly respond to the request, the staff shall notify the candidate of the additional information which should be submitted to the Registry.
- (3) If the Registry staff determines that an advisory opinion request contains a complete description of the proposed transaction or activity, the staff shall notify the candidate making the request that it was received by the Registry and that the matter shall be presented by the staff to the board at its next scheduled meeting for an advisory opinion to be issued.
- (4) After reviewing a candidate's advisory opinion request and upon determining that the request presents essentially the same fact situation or proposed activity which was the subject of an advisory opinion previously issued by the Registry, the staff may recommend to the board at its next regularly scheduled meeting that a copy of that earlier opinion be sent to the candidate, in lieu of issuing a new opinion. If a majority of the members of the Registry present and voting at the meeting vote to adopt the staff's recommendation, a copy of the previous opinion shall be mailed to the candidate with a memorandum explaining that the analysis and conclusion(s) contained in that previous opinion are applicable to the activity being proposed.

by the candidate. However, if a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting determine that a new advisory opinion should be issued addressing the candidate's opinion request, the procedures outlined in paragraph 5 through 8 of this rule shall be followed in issuing the opinion, where applicable.

- (5) The Registry staff shall review the question presented in the candidate's request and research the applicable provisions of the Campaign Disclosure Law. A draft of an advisory opinion shall be presented to the members of the Registry at the board's next meeting, with a recommendation from the staff. After reviewing the draft, the members of the Registry present at the meeting shall then vote as to whether to issue the opinion as drafted.
- (6) If a majority of the members of the Registry present and voting at a meeting vote to issue an advisory opinion as drafted by the staff, the advisory opinion shall be issued under the signature of the chairperson. The opinion shall be provided to the candidate who requested it. Additionally, the Executive Director shall forward copies of the opinion to the office of Legislative Legal Services and to all local county election commission offices for dissemination. A copy of the opinion shall be retained on file at the Registry office for public inspection and copying.
- (7) If a majority of the members of the Registry present and voting at a meeting vote not to adopt an opinion as drafted, any board recommended changes shall be made in the opinion by the staff. If the changes voted by the board are minor changes, the staff shall be directed to make those specific changes, and the opinion shall be issued under the signature of the chairperson without further review by the board. The procedures for disseminating the advisory opinion as set forth in paragraph (6) shall then be followed.
- (8) If a majority of the Registry members present and voting at a meeting vote changes to be made to a draft advisory opinion which require the staff to rewrite the opinion with a different result, the Executive Director shall resent another draft of the opinion to the board members at the next scheduled meeting of the Registry.

The form shall be signed by an official from the county election commission.
- (4) For each candidate listed by the county election commission as failing to timely file a report, the county election commission shall provide the Registry with a copy of the original notification letter, certified notification letter, acknowledgement card from the certified letter and report (if applicable).

0530—1—3—.02 CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS.

- (1) Contributions from a candidate's family members are subject to the same dollar limitations as contributions from any other individual.
- (2) A child under eighteen (18) years of age may make contributions from monies he/she owns or controls if the child knowingly and voluntarily makes such contributions. Children may not use funds provided as a gift to them for the purpose of making a contribution.
- (3) If a person is a candidate for more than one state or local office, an individual or multicandidate political campaign committee may make contributions which do not exceed the dollar limits as set forth in T.C.A. §§2-10-302 and 2-10-306, to the candidate or his/her authorized political committees for each election for each office, as long as:
  - (a) Separate campaign bank accounts are maintained for each campaign.
  - (b) Each campaign shall have different and distinct campaign names (i.e. John Doe for State Senate and John Doe for Property Assessor).
  - (c) Separate contribution checks must be written to each separate campaign.
- (4) A candidate who accepts contributions for an election in a particular election year may not accept contributions for the same office in any future election year until the completion of all elections in which the candidate is involved in the present election year. (I.e. An individual who is a candidate in a 2000 election cannot collect monies for the 2002 elections for the same office until all the 2000 elections in which the person is a candidate have been completed for that office.)

0530—1—3—.03 ATTRIBUTION OF CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS.

- (1) A candidate's campaign financial disclosure report must disclose the particular election for which each itemized contribution is allocated. The Registry staff will return a campaign financial disclosure report to a candidate for such designations if the allocations are not indicated on the report.
- (2) A candidate who has outstanding loans and/or obligations from a previous election cycle may accept contributions in the current election to apply to the loans of the previous election. However, these contributions count towards the current election campaign contribution limits whether they are used to pay off the previous campaign loans and/or obligations or used in the current election campaign.
- (3) Contributions made by written instrument, such as a check, shall be attributed to the payor of the instrument, unless otherwise indicated.

- (4) Any reduction in the unpaid balance of a loan shall reduce proportionally the amount endorsed or guaranteed by each endorser or guarantor. Once the loan is repaid in full, the guarantee or endorsement no longer counts against such guarantor's or endorser's contribution limits.

0530—1—3—.04 CERTIFICATION OF POLITICAL TREASURER.

- (1) After a candidate completes his/her last election in an election year, a candidate must file an "Appointment of Political Treasurer's Statement" to certify the name of the campaign treasurer with the Registry and/or local county election commission, as appropriate, before the candidate may receive any additional contributions for a future election or for constituent services, unless the candidate has an outstanding loan or obligation from a prior election. The candidate may utilize the same individual as political treasurer that has been used in a past election cycle, but the new designation of treasurer must be filed.

0530—1—3—.05 BOOKKEEPING PROCEDURES.

- (1) A candidate must adopt a record-keeping system to distinguish between contributions made for a primary election and those made for a general election. Contributions received for a general election may not be spent in the preceding primary election, but any funds remaining from a primary election may be used in a subsequent general election.
- (2) A candidate through his/her record-keeping system must be able to determine the aggregate amount of contributions received per election from each contributor.
- (3) A candidate must have a bookkeeping system in place documenting contributions and expenditures. The Registry recommends that candidates and their committees maintain copies of all contributions received or in the alternative a journal or listing of contributions and expenditures.

0530—1—3—.06 DISCLOSURE OF AFFILIATION OF MULTICANDIDATE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEES (PACs).

- (1) When registering as a multicandidate political campaign committee (PAC), a committee must disclose its affiliation with any other PACs and provide the names and addresses of those PACs. Such affiliations must be disclosed in the PAC's appointment of political treasurer statement. A committee must notify the Registry if it later becomes affiliated with any other PACs and provide the names and addresses of those PACs within thirty (30) days of the affiliation occurring.

    2. Made by or through any person who is, or has been, authorized to raise or expend funds, who is, or has been, an officer of any authorized committee, or who is, or has been, receiving any form of compensation or reimbursement from the candidate, the candidate's committee or agent.

- (5) “Agent” means any person who has actual oral or written authority, either express or implied, to make or to authorize the making of expenditures on behalf of a candidate, or means any person who has been placed in a position within the campaign organization where it would reasonably appear that in the ordinary course of campaign-related activities he or she may authorize expenditures.

Those independent expenditures totaling $100 or less to a single payee during a reporting period shall be reported as a total by categories.
